It is in full bloom and a brilliant bit of color, and where is there anything quite so lovely as the pink flowering almond now in bloom?

The complete yearly programs for the Garden club were donated by members of the club and friends.

STANFIELD NEWS

By Mrs. J. M. Richards

Annual Study Club Meeting Held
About 60 ladies attended the annual observance of Study club day in the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon. Miss Jane Olson, county librarian, gave an interesting account of her trip to Sweden last summer.

Other program numbers included greetings by Mrs. Hedrick; a musical reading by Mrs. F. Steinke with piano accompaniment by Mrs. H. McCormick; vocal solos by Mrs. Stanley Lyon with Mrs. Hawley Bean as accompanist; a Swedish folk song by Mesdames H. McCormick, W. G. Wallace and F. Steinke; a one-act play, "Thursdays At Home," with the following cast: Mesdames H. McCormick, J. M. Richards, H. L. Hedrick, W. T. Reeves, W. G. Wallace, Jay Baker, F. S. Shelton, G. E. Great-house and J. F. Rueber.

Committees in charge were Mesdames H. McCormick, J. M. Richards, F. Steinke, S. P. Smith and Troy Coleman.

The tea rooms were decorated with hyacinths and daffodils, and the retiring president, Mrs. H. L. Hedrick, and incoming president, Mrs. J. T. Baker, presided at the tea tables.

Mrs. W. G. Wallace and Mrs. J. F. Lane will go to Parkdale Saturday where they will be joint hostesses Sunday with their sister, Mrs.

I. R. Laurance, honoring their father on his 90th birthday. About 35 relatives will be assembled at the Laurance home and other birthday anniversaries to be observed on the same day are Carl and Mal Sturdivant, the latter being 80.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hutton and son Merle of Tillamook are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. W. Gifford.

Mrs. Thomas Gregory was hostess to the bridge club at her home Monday afternoon. Guests other than members included Mesdames M. Refvem, D. Z. Penney, Ed Liesegang, T. G. Elliott, S. P. Smith and Jennie Shepard.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Evans of Lyle, Wn., visited Mrs. Pearl Evans the first of the week.

Mrs. W. G. Wallace, accompanied by Miss Marjory Hindman of Echo, and L. L. Haisch went to La Grande Sunday.

Mrs. W. P. Smith returned Saturday following a ten day visit with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Waterman and daughter of Ritzville are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hoskins.

The Pilot Rock ladies chorus presented an Easter cantata "The Thorn Crowned King," in the Presbyterian church Sunday night, with Albert Gilliam as director.

The Girls' League sponsored a pie social and program in the high school auditorium Friday night. Program numbers included a play "Not a Man in the House"; tap dances; girls' chorus selections; and a black-faced comedy skit, "The Bright Side of a Darky Romance," written by Garth Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Bard were Milton visitors Sunday.

Miss Stoop Complimented

Mrs. Georgia Henderson and Miss Maxine Faust entertained informally Monday night complimenting Miss Pauline Stoop at the home of Mrs. J. S. Burnham. The honoree was presented a lovely gift following a pleasant time playing Chinese checkers. Among the guests bidden were Mrs. Burnham, the Misses Marjorie Burnham, Maxine Paul, Julia Colpitts, Snow McCoy, Pauline Lewis Mary Petri, and Alice Stone. Mrs. Neil Boynton, Mrs. B. I. Whitney, Mrs. Duff Knight and Mrs. M. G. Hedwall, Mrs. Knight and Miss Colpitts won prizes as the best Chinese Checker players.

GARDEN CLUB CHATS

Club meeting on Monday was delayed an hour so that members could have an opportunity to see and hear the Young Oregonian group at the school house. It was a wonderful show and the Oregonian is to be highly commended for its interest in children and the local school board also for making the affair possible.

Mrs. John Hammon was the speaker for the afternoon, taking the place of Mrs. S. L. Carson who was advertised to talk on "Continuous Bloom in the Garden," but who was unable to be present. Mrs. Hammon took the same subject and her talk was interesting and informative. The monthly notes on garden work were prepared by Mrs. H. K. Dean and read by Mrs. George Wagner. Mrs. B. A. Doyle spoke of preparations for the coming flower show on May 15 and also of the good material in the scrapbooks in her charge, which are made up of specific facts by Mrs. Doyle and others; arranged alphabetically, and available at all times to those who are looking for information along some certain line.

Mrs. J. J. Gimble gave a report on the ticket sale for the Pendleton Male Chorus which gave such a very satisfactory performance in the high school gymnasium on March 31. A good sized audience, in spite of many other activities scheduled for the same evening, attested to the work put into ticket selling by the committee and many who were there expressed a hope that the chorus would come back each year. A complete report of the financial result is as follows: Receipts, $96.20, of which 50 per cent or $48.10, went to the chorus; the expenses were taken from the remainder; printing and advertising, $18.00; flowers, $2.75; janitor, $1.00; lumber, $1.00. This left a total of $25.35 for the park kitchen.

An invitation was received from the Freewater Garden Club to attend a tea to be given in Freewater on April 19 at 2:00 p. m. in the city library in the parlors of the Freewater Federated church. There will be a program and a silver offering.

At the meeting it was voted to send a letter of appreciation to Miss Pauline Stoop of the Hermiston Herald for her cooperation with the activities of the club in giving space to the garden club chats, use of the Herald window for advertising and many other kindnesses.

As soon as your forsythia is through blooming be sure to prune out the old wood to take advantage of the summer's growth of new, for next year's blooms.

If you are hesitating about planting a flowering quince see the one on the lawn of the Methodist church.
