STANFIELD NEWS

By Mrs. J. M. Richards

Open house was held at Camp Stanfield Sunday afternoon in observance of the sixth anniversary of the civilian conservation corps. The visitors were conducted about the grounds by courteous enrollee guides and were given a clear conception of the scope of S. C. S. work and how the boys live and learn, work and play. A bounteous lunch was served by the boys at the conclusion of the tour. Lieut. J. D. Bell, commanding officer, and J. W. Chenault, S. C. S. camp superintendent, are to be commended for the systematic and orderly manner in which the camp is conducted.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Arnold (Mary Gossage) announce the birth of a daughter, Delores Ann, in Yakima, Wn., April 19.

At the regular semi-monthly Grange meeting Tuesday night arrangements were made for a benefit dance to be given on May 13 to help defray expenses of the 4-H club delegate to summer school in Corvallis in June. An egg grading demonstration was given by Grace and Frank Benschel of Hermiston with Assistant County Agent M. E. Knickerbocker in charge. Lunch was served by Mrs. A. S. Power.

Mrs. Harry Culbertson and daughter Marian Ann returned to their home in Parkdale following a two weeks' visit at the J. F. Lane, W. G. Wallace, Stanfield, and the Phil Quimby home in Pendleton.

Mrs. Oliver Nelson and her father-in-law, Mr. Nelson of Spokane, Wn., transacted business in Stanfield the latter part of last week and while here were guests at the F. A. Baker home. Mr. Oliver Nelson passed away recently in Spokane. The Nelsons made their home here for several months with Mr. and Mrs. Don Sikes.

Miss La Velle Shipley, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley, and Orville Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Myers, were married in Pasco, Wn., Saturday. Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dallman. On Sunday evening a wedding supper complimenting the newly-weds was served at the Kenneth Gregory home. Later in the evening a number of friends staged a charivari for them. At present Mr. and Mrs. Myers are living in Stanfield.

Mrs. C. M. McCall was hostess to the Garden Club at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Shipments of day-old turkey poulters have been received recently by the Coe and F. Shelton ranches and 10-day old White Leghorn chicks by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Penney.

Mr. and Mrs. William Behme have bought the two Ling cottages opposite the hotel.

The executives of the Ladies Aid and Presbyterian church met in the church Tuesday night to formulate plans for repairs on the church basement. Work on the foundation and floor will be started very soon. The Commercial club headed the list with a $25 donation and since then a number of smaller subscriptions have been added.

"Tonight I call on the people of this great Northwest to exert themselves in every practical way for the support of existing industries, for the expansion of these industries and the establishment of new wealth-producing industries here."
