DECORATION DAY

Once a year comes a day for the living to remember the dead. Next Tuesday, May 30, it is a goodly and proper thing for those living and able to mark this remembrance with sweet flowers. As a people, we are not very emotional, and if there is any way in which we can bring our kindness to the surface, it should be done, and so the encouragement of the day sacred to the memory of those who have gone before is worthy of much consideration. Decoration Day must essentially be one entirely free from any feeling but that of generosity and loving kindness.

It is a beautiful idea—this one of decorating the graves of all the soldiers, but how much better it would be to carry the custom even further, and not have even one grave in the cemetery overlooked.

ler at Umatilla from Friday until Monday.
