STANFIELD NEWS

By Mrs. J. M. Richards

Rev. J. K. Griffiths will return to Stanfield from a trip to California this week end. There will be services at 8:00 p. m. Sunday.

Mrs. Ila Wallace is attending the National Rural Carriers' convention in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Smith have returned to their home following two months spent in the east. They travelled by train from Stanfield to Detroit where Mr. Smith bought a Chevrolet in which they continued the trip to their former home at Gloucester, Mass. They toured the New England states and attended the New York fair.

Miss Elva Berry returned Friday from an extended visit in California. She visited her brothers Nye at Crescent City and John Berry of Merced. She attended the Golden Gate International. En route home she visited Mrs. Carol Buckley (Alice Rhea) and Miss Marie Rhea at Healesburg, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hooser at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Smith and family are spending this week in Boise and at Wallowa Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Refvem and sons Robert, Donald and Tommy left Sunday for a visit at their former home at Grangeville, Idaho. They plan to spend a short time at Payette Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Geer of Madras are the parents of a son born Monday, August 14, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barber. The young chap weighed ten pounds and has been named Damon Laverne.

Mrs. Margaret Daughtry, local postmistress, went to Portland Tuesday to spend two weeks at the home of her son, Mr. McAllister.

Mrs. Fred Longhary and son Ray are visiting relatives in Portland. The Misses Myrtle and Miriam Olson and their brother Bob of Westgate, Iowa, were guests at the John Rueber home last week. They had spent several weeks in the west visiting friends and attending the San Francisco fair. While here they were honor guests at several dinner parties, one at the John Rueber home with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lenz as guests, and another at the J. F. Rueber home Thursday with covers laid for ten.

Miss Marilla Dunning went to La Grande Thursday where she was a guest of the Misses Amanda Zobel and Mabel Morton for two days. There were sixteen house guests in the party, seven of whom were former Pendleton teachers, so much reminiscing was done.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhea of Portland were week end guests at the home of his brother, Curtis Rhea.

Mrs. G. E. Greathouse returned Monday from Portland where she was called by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Loren Miller.

PENTECOSTAL TABERNACLE
 Rev. E. Dudley Greeley, Pastor.
 Lord's day services are at 10:00 o'clock with Bible school; 11:00, devotion; and 7:45, the evening service. Pastor Greeley will bring a message on the theme: "The Crisis in Experience and Experience in the Crisis of Life." The evening sermon subject, "Such As We Have."
 If you miss hearing this original speaker, you will be the loser. Come with the others.

HERMISTON UNION CHURCH
 C. Warner, Pastor
 Perhaps you have wondered "Why Be A Christian?" "What Constitutes A Christian?" "Is it possible I am missing something by not being a Christian?"
 Our sermon for the Sunday morning service will be around the theme, "The Christian Life," and in the evening worship service, "Why I Am A Christian."
 We shall try to make them both worshipful and helpful.

METHODIST CHURCH
 Stearns Cushing, Jr., Pastor
 "Cheerful Christians" will be the subject for the Sunday morning service at the Methodist church. The Sunday school hour is 10:00 o'clock. The morning worship service is at 11:00.

Epworth League at 7:00 o'clock, with Lillie Moyer, the leader. Evening service at 8:00 o'clock, with our study of the 23rd Psalm.

You are always welcomed at these services.

Enjoy Outing At Dam Sunday
 Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Saylor, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Durfee, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pearson and Mrs. Gwynn Hughes were among those who enjoyed an outing at the Cold Spring reservoir Sunday.

GARDEN CLUB CHATS

The Hermiston Garden club's one day Flower School, employing the services of Mrs. Daniel Haefner for afternoon and evening lectures, was most successful.

Mrs. Mansfield, a regional state vice president, and several other Milton Garden club ladies were here to greet Mrs. Hoefner and attend the sessions, held in the basement of the M. E. church.

(More information regarding the Flower School will be published next week.)

Don't forget the important special Garden Club meeting next Monday afternoon in the library, August 22. Come, won't you?

COLUMBIA NEWS

By Lois Hutchison

Lois Hutchison, who is to be married Sunday, was given a bridal shower Friday on the lovely lawn at the A. H. Cable home. Mrs. L. C. Upham, Mrs. W. A. Mikesell and Mrs. A. H. Cable were hostesses for the affair. Miss Barbara Reid assisted Miss Hutchison in the opening of the many beautiful gifts. Delightful refreshments of ice cream cake and ice tea were served on attractive tables. Miss Zana Dudley of Portland pleased during the serving with two selections on the violin. Those present were Mesdames Mary Harr, John Jendzejewski, Emma Christley, Cecil Madden, L. W. Douglas, W. B. Foster, J. H. Reid, Lester Hammer, Carl Hammer, Hugh Neill, Weir Casady, Lois Blum, Laura Morris, Annette Barham and the Misses Janice Madden, Jerry Madden, Barbara Reid, Gloria Hammer, Peggy Neill, Dorene Cable, Zana Dudley and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Moore visited at the H. A. Hooker home Tuesday evening.

Word was received Friday of last week from Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ott and daughters Edna and Marion, who left here August 27 for a trip to Missouri. They are visiting at Jefferson City and other places of interest over the state. Mrs. Ott says, "I and Mr. Ott are making this trip to visit our Mamas." They state the weather is extremely hot there and also that they expect to be home in the near future.

L. W. Lathrop of Enterprise was an overnight visitor at the Duane Lathrop home Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor were calling on friends in this district on Sunday. They also stopped to see the garden sprinkler at the Hutchison farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conrad were visiting at The Dalles Sunday.

L. Hammer and son Carl were in Pendleton on business Monday.

Lois Hutchison and Edward Shaw were honored at a dinner given at the Frank Sater home Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ermol Sater, Misses Dorothy and Rebecca Pierson, Joyce and Omega Sater, Homer Davis, Emil Sater, Lowell Sater and the honor guests and host and hostess.

Jo Ellen Smith went huckleberry picking with the M. M. Graybeal family at Toll Gate Monday of last week. They returned Thursday.

Everett Davis, extension specialist from Oregon State college, and Assistant County Agent M. E. Knickerbocker, were at the Hutchison farm Thursday of last week checking over the garden sprinkler installed there by the state.

J. H. Reid, Dell Christley and Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hutchison of this district attended a meeting of the committees for the Umatilla county fair Thursday evening of last week. Fred Johnson of Albee was a visitor at the John Conrad home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Vandine, Mrs. Adaline Dickerson and Mrs. Grace Kinney and son Clifford, all of Richland, Wn., and Mr. and Mrs. Leo LaMon of Pendleton were Saturday visitors at the L. Hammer residence.
