HUTCHISON-SHAW

At an attractive ceremony performed in the Methodist church on Sunday, August 20, at 3 o'clock, Miss Lois Mae Hutchison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hutchison, became the bride of Roy Edward Shaw. Rev. Stearns Cushing Jr. read the service. Miss Mary Burnham sang "Because" preceding the ceremony. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Golda Mamma.

The bride wore a sheer white dress and a finger-tip veil with a halo of rosebuds. She carried a shower bouquet of shell-pink gladiolas.

Mrs. Albert Hutchison of Pendleton, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. Misses Omega Sater, Della Mae Williams of La Grande, Joyce Sater, Dorothy Pierson, Myrthena Martin of Madras, and Rebecca Pierson, dressed in pastel shades, acted as bridesmaids. Petite Kathleen Kelly served as flower girl.

Albert Hutchison, brother of the bride, was best man, and Emil Settlege, Dell Christley, Homer Davis and Elmer James of Ukiah were the ushers. Miss Marva Hutchison of Pendleton played the wedding music.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in the Columbia district. Mrs. W. A. Mikesell baked the bride's cake and Mrs. E. B. Hutchison the wedding cake and the groom's cake. A feature of the reception was a cake baked by Mrs. Cora Boyd of Pilot Rock which was the same type as that baked by her for the wedding of Mrs. Baxter Hutchison 30 years ago.

Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ermol Sater, Miss Marjorie Burnham and Miss Barbara Reid. Many guests were present from out-of-town, including Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bittner of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rhodda of Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Arnberg of Irrigon, Mrs. Ella McBroom, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hutchison and family, Miss Patricia Gibbs, Miss Louise Farhanwald and Miss Lucille Farhanwald, all of Pilot Rock.

BOUSQUET-DONOVAN

Rose Yvonne Bousquet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Bousquet, became the bride of Paul Donovan of Los Angeles at a nine o'clock ceremony at the Lady of Angels church in Hermiston Saturday.

The bride was attractive in a gown of ivory hammered satin and an heirloom veil of hand made French lace and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Her only attendant was Margaret Marie Smith of Umatilla who was dressed in a pink taffeta dress with a bolero. She carried a nosegay bouquet of roses, sweetpeas and bougardia. Donovan had as his best man, his brother, Hugh Taggart Donovan of Spokane.

Ushers for the event were Bill Bousquet and Al Redder while little Ellen Pound was charming as ring-bearer.

The wedding march, Handel's "Largo", was played by Miss Phyllis Sires of Stanfield. Mrs. J. V. Franklin, sister of the bride and Jerry Fehrenbacher sang during the Nuptial Mass.

The wedding ceremony was read by the Rev. Father E. J. Murane of St. Rose's parish, Portland, who officiated at the golden wedding ceremony of the bride's grandparents on August 19, 1931.

A wedding breakfast was served in the Masonic hall with members of the family and a few invited guests present.

Out of town guests included W. G. Smith, grandfather of the bride, Miss M. Alice Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schroeder and Al Redder, all of Condon; Mrs. P. M. Meany of Portland and Mrs. J. V. Franklin of Fall River Mills, Calif.

The young couple will make their home at Los Angeles.
