HUTCHISON HAS PRODUCE DISPLAY

Baxter Hutchison of the Columbia district had a fine display of garden produce at the county fair this week. His produce was raised with the use of an overhead sprinkling system tried for the first time this year in this territory. The general opinion was that sprinkling was very successful.

His display consisted of all fall crops and showed excellent quality. A bunch of celery especially created a great deal of interest because of its firmness and quality.

Hutchison stated that he was well pleased with the new experiment and stated that the cost was very little more than ordinary irrigation. Among other advantages are that it makes cultivation easier.

Billie McMickle Has Birthday.

A sixth birthday party was given Billie McMickle by his mother at the Beale home on Hermiston avenue last Thursday, August 24th. Games were played and ice cream and cake were served. Among the guests were Mrs. Heberts, who assisted the hostess, Mrs. E. O. Greeley, who had
