TOWNSENDITES TO MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

All members of the Hermiston Townsend club are urged to attend the meeting Friday night, October 27, at 8:00 o'clock. The membership committee is expecting that each member bring in an addition to the club. This is "bank night" and all members are urged to turn in their banks.

A part of the discussion will be centered around a proposed play that will be presented by the local club soon in the high school gymnasium. The ways and means committee is reporting a dutch auction and the Ladies' Auxiliary will feature a jitney lunch. The public is invited.

WEATHER GETTING SOMEWHAT COOLER

Hermiston residents have been busy the past few weeks erecting stoves of all descriptions because the night are getting close to freezing temperature. The highest temperature recorded during the week was 78 with .13 in. of rain. Topcoats were noted about the streets Wednesday, heralding the approach of Old Man Winter.

The following is the weather report for the week ending October 25, according to Chas. Taylor, local weather man.

October 19	70	50
October 20	75	46
October 21	78	41
October 22	78	32
October 23	77	43
October 24	60	42

BASKETBALL SQUAD BEGINS PRACTICE

With the close of football nearing, preliminary workouts are being held twice a week by members of the basketball squad, in charge of Stearns Cushing Jr. Fundamentals and conditioning are being stressed. The squad which totals about 12 boys will be increased when some of the men on the football team hang up their suits after the closing game on Armistice Day. While too early to make any predictions, the outlook is fair.

Page Visits Old Home.

J. B. Pace returned Tuesday from Enterprise where he attended the funeral of his brother, J. L. Pace. He visited old friends in Enterprise and Wallowa, having made his home there about 40 years. He also visited his brother I. G. Pace, owner of the Welcome Stock Farm, producing purebred Polled Angus and Polled Herefords, as good as can be found anywhere in the northwest.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends for their help and floral contributions during the illness and death of our son and grandson, Donald James Cupp.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cupp,
Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Kauffman.
