Local Happenings

M. E. Knickerbocker is spending a few days in Corvallis this week.

Berkeley Davis of Pendleton was in town Tuesday transacting business.

N. R. Mueller left Friday for New York City on a ten day business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waller of Prosser spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Felthouse.

Cooked food sale and bazaar by Methodist ladies aid Saturday, December 16 at Burnham & Burnham.

Mrs. A. F. Rohrman had the misfortune of spraining her ankle Sunday. She is able to be up and around on crutches.

Mrs. Lawrence Snodgrass of Forest Grove arrived last week end to make her home with her husband, Mr. Snodgrass who is employed as body man at the Rohrman Garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Blessing of Portland were visitors in Hermiston last Wednesday.

Jerry Brosman of Lena was kicked in the face by a horse last Thursday, resulting in very serious injuries.

Fay Leatherwood of Cold Creek, North Carolina, was in Hermiston Tuesday in connection with the estate of Charles Leatherwood.

Don't miss the clearance sale of beautiful embroidered articles now on display at the Inland Cooperative.

Mrs. Rena Waterman left Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yeager, in Walla Walla.

A. Walker of Echo was treated at the Hermiston General hospital this week with injuries he received while splitting wood. A tendon was severed in his left hand.

Joe Norton of Mt. Vernon stopped in Hermiston a short time Wednesday. He was formerly in business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Isaacs and daughter Helen Kay of Pilot Rock spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dyer, returning Sunday morning.

Mrs. F. C. McKenzie and her mother, Mrs. G. R. O'Daniel, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Robertson of Echo on a trip to Walla Walla last Saturday.

Mrs. Mable Ralph, Miss Charlotte Ralph and Mrs. Fred Hensel and small son were business visitors in Pendleton Monday.

Mrs. Walter Frazier, formerly Daisy Stanfield of Butter Creek, died suddenly last week at her home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. L. Patch spent the week end in Walla Walla with her son John, who is attending college there. She also visited with her daughter, Mrs. Moll Nelson at Freewater.

Monroe Swarner, who has been at Fairbanks, Alaska, for the past two years, has returned to the states and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Swarner of this place.

Miss Emily Mendenhall is reported as doing nicely. She is in the Hermiston General hospital receiving medical aid for bruises and broken shoulder blades received when she was attacked by an angry bull.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hall of Umatilla are announcing the arrival of a baby girl born this week at the Mrs. Howard Montgomery home. The baby weighed 8 pounds, 12 ounces and has been named Barbara Louise.

Lawrence Swarner, who has been in the hospital in Fairbanks, Alaska, since the early part of August, has been transferred to the Emanuel hospital in Portland where he is under the care of doctors for injuries received in a fall while at work at Fairbanks.

E. P. Marshal of Pendleton, large wheat rancher near Cold Springs, a district now served by the R.E.A., was a caller in Hermiston Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Stone of Heppner were dinner guests at the John Mathews home Wednesday night.

The Westland Grange Home Economics club met in special session at the home of Mrs. J. M. Prindle on December 13, and elected the following officers: Monte Prindle, chairman; Pearl Shaw, vice chairman; Alma Laird, treasurer, and Mabel Corliss, secretary.

Remember the Baptist Ladies Aid Christmas sale at Thompson's Drug Store Wednesday, December 20. Things new and old. Fancy work, plywood picture albums and other articles for your last minute shopping. Also used dresses, shoes, overcoats, blouses, suits, etc.

Mrs. Fred Hensel and Mrs. W. J. Warner were hostesses at the latter's home at a dessert bridge party Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon. A beautiful Christmas motif was used about the room with a lighted Christmas tree and gifts for everyone. The fireplace was also decorated, using the Christmas idea.

A Columbia Union C. E. executive meeting was held in Pendleton at the First Christian church Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Those attending from here were Ralph Neill, president, Betty Moorehouse, treasurer, Glenn Warner, social committee, Donna Saylor, missionary committee, Rodney Rogers, educational committee, and Mrs. Cecil Warner and Allan Clarke.

BAPTIST CHURCH PLANS MEETINGS

Dr. C. D. Sawtelle, evangelist, and Joseph Dahl, singing evangelist, both of Portland, will open special meetings at the Hermiston Baptist church on January 17 and will continue till the end of the month, according to Grayden Loree, local pastor.

Dr. Sawtelle is reported as being an inspiring speaker and Mr. Dahl formerly served as chaplain of the Oklahoma state prison. Further announcements will be made later.
