(From The Bulldog)

The beautiful and ELEGANT (because it is sponsored by Miss Lynch) Christmas dance comes this year on the eve of December 22nd, Friday at 8:30 p. m. Flooding our softly lighted ballroom on the ground floor of our good old Alma Mater (commonly known as the high school gym) will be the divine, scintillating music of Steele's ten piece swing orchestra. ous, to say nothing of colossal. Blazing Christmas trees with illuminate colorful wall panel decorations and a globe of mirrors suspended in mid-air will reflect the beauty of the dancers as they glide by. Beautiful they will be, too, the girls are wearing those long dresses that flow and swish and ripple, and the men will be properly attired in dark suits. None of the casual cords and sports clothes at THIS dance. For, now I ask you, how does a pair of dirty cords look in a candle-lighted mirror? You are right, but we won't repeat your bad word.

Invitations have gone out to the elite of the country 'round. So come and swing with us—only 15c or 60c to twinkle your toes in this wipster wonderland.

The Senior class members are Santa's little helpers for this gala occasion.
