Pilgrim Holiness Church.

Alice Norris, Pastor
We are in Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. Come and bring the children. Orbie Wells is the superintendent. We have a message at 11:00 a. m. You may hear something that will change your whole life.

The young people gather for a service at 6:30 p. m. Then the closing service at 7:45 p. m. is evangelistic in nature.

Hermiston Baptist Church.

Grayden D. Loree, Pastor
Why wait till Easter to come to church? Why not enjoy its blessings now? We invite you to worship with us. Services of the day begin with Sunday school at 10 o'clock, followed by morning worship at 11 o'clock. Young people's service is at 6:45 and evening worship at 7:45. Our Sunday evening messages for the next few weeks will be dealing with the book of Daniel, especially in a prophetic light. This Sunday we will take up chapter 2. Come and study this book with us. Prayer meeting is Wednesday at 7:30.

Hermiston Union Church.

C. Warner, Pastor
Why not use the day of worship as it was intended? Begin the day in the house of worship. The Lord ordained it. The churches are maintained for that purpose. Any of them will welcome you. For weeks we have been worshipping around a series of sermons, "On The Cross." Sunday morning our sermon topic shall be, "The Power of the Cross" and Sunday evening, "Christ Over All."

The Pentecostal Tabernacle

Rev. E. D. Greeley, Pastor
Evangelists Elizabeth and Gladys Rickes continue with us indefinitely in revival services. The wholesome Gospel is being ministered to the "whosoever will." Bible school convenes at 10 a. m. Mrs. Juanita Greeley, superintendent. Preaching service at 11:00 a. m. "God's Will For You," sermon subject. Sermons that stir, songs that lift. So come and be blessed with the rest.
