COLUMBIA NEWS

By Mrs. Baxter Hutchison

The F. B. A. members spent a very enjoyable day with Mrs. Duane Lathrop recently. The ladies did mending while they visited. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. In the afternoon old songs were sung with Mrs. Lathrop's fine alto voice joining in. Mrs. Otis Buell was at the piano. About 25 were present.

Mrs. John Gray is reported ill at her home. Mr. Turner from the Maguire Electric Hatchery of Portland was here Friday and Saturday, blood-testing chickens. The U. Edwards, Arthur Blanton and Roy Pearson flocks were among those tested in this district.

Peggy Sommerer and several of her little friends celebrated Peggy's birthday with a theatre party Sunday. Later in the afternoon refreshments were served at her home.

Mrs. W. A. Mikesell, Mrs. George Strohm, Mrs. Paul Bracher and Mrs. A. H. Cable formed a committee that met at the Strohm home Thursday and hemmed table cloths for the Rebecca lodge. Mrs. Strohm served ice cream and cookies for refreshments.

Mrs. W. P. Luttrell of Portland and daughter, Mrs. Fisher of Tacoma, Wn., were visiting in this district and in Pendleton over the week end.

A birthday was given Saturday evening at the B. E. Getchell home to celebrate the birthdays of Norma and James Getchell, and Dorothy Hiatt. Games were played. Cake, jello and punch were served. Those present were Dorothy and Jim Knox, Lewis Wilson, Cliff, and Clayton Tolmanson, Bobby Eaton, Elmer Blahm, Rachel Weeks, Mary and Henry Sommerer, Earl Getchell, Jim Marshall, Ruth McCulley, Myra, Norma and James Getchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keener were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilson Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hugg and children will occupy the dwelling vacated by the Cecil Madden family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Madden and family moved into Hermiston Saturday. They are with Mr. Madden's parents. They expect to leave the latter part of the week for their new home in Iowa.

Mrs. J. H. Reid returned Saturday from Corvallis where she had spent the past week attending the Homemakers Conference. Mrs. Reid reports a wonderful time. There were 500 country women present from the small towns throughout the state.

Ernest Hoffman of Redmond visited at the John Jendrzewski home and with other friends here over the week end. He was a former resident of this district.

Mrs. Miles Barager, Mrs. Burnham and daughter Marjory and Mrs. Mullins made a trip to Pendleton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reeves and son Harold of Umatilla visited at the Bob Woodward home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Lenz was called to town Sunday night. Her daughter, Mrs. Henry Kowitz, was seriously ill.

The Sewing and Cooking clubs led by Ann Sommerer held a food sale in Hermiston Saturday.

Joyce McCulley was home over the week end.

The Columbia school gave a patriotic program, followed by a puppet show Monday evening. The program was well rendered. The public was invited.

Among Pendleton visitors from this district Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Upham, Mrs. Elmer Dixon, Mrs. L. W. Dixon, Mrs. Percy Corman and Miss Joyce McCulley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Udey and Mrs. Tom Sink were Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mikesell. Percy Corman made a business trip to Pendleton the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Addleman spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dunham.

Lowell Young, brother of Mrs. Emory Cox, is now working on the Tom Boylen sheep ranch on Butter Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Wright and small daughter were week end visitors at the Ray Oviatt home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hughes were Sunday visitors at the Will Barber home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kowitz were visitors at the B. E. Getchell home Sunday.

The beautiful sunshine Sunday brought people out into the open spaces. A number of boaters were seen on the Cold Springs reservoir and on the Columbia river. The yellow daisies are making their appearances along with the daffodils and violets. It seems Spring is here.

Mrs. Mildred Harris and Mrs. Rogers of Pendleton were at the R. B. Wilcox home Sunday looking at the saddle horses.

Gerald Garley who has been staying with Mrs. Laura Morris for the past year and attending high school is now at the L. W. Douglas home.

Miss Myrthena Martin spent the week end with her parents at Gateway, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zivney were in Portland over the week end visiting Mrs. Zivney's mother.

Mrs. Mabel Weeks and family were in Pendleton Tuesday on a shopping tour and had dinner with Mrs. R. J. Wilbur.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jordan and daughter Dorothy were dinner guests at the L. W. Douglas home Sunday.

L. W. Douglas left Monday for Pilot Rock where he will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hammer are building a two-room addition to their house. The work is well under way.

J. D. Christley made a trip to Portland the first of the week.

How much new furniture have you bought in the last five years?

The chances are you have added more than you realize, and need more insurance on household effects than you are carrying. If you want to check up, we shall be glad to give you a Residence Inventory booklet.

We can bring your insurance up-to-date at moment's notice. Also we take the financial guesswork out of insurance . . . by placing it with strong capital stock companies. You can never become liable for assessment.

METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Stearns Cushing Jr.

The sermon for the Sunday morning service will be, "Spiritual Adventure." Anyone who tried to go through life on borrowed capital would be called a fool, yet how many there are who try to go on "borrowed" faith. The service is at 11:00 a. m. Special music by choir. The Sunday School meets at 10. Our "win 3 program" is coming along fine. You will find a class suited to your age and interest. The Epworth League meets at 7:00 p. m. followed by the meditation service at 8.

You are invited to come worship God in this atmosphere of friendliness, joy and hope.
