TOWNSEND CLUB NEWS

By MRS. JOE UDEY

Another fine meeting was held last Friday night. A very pleasing program was presented. A Townsend address was given by Alfred Lentz of Pendleton. Mrs. Waldo Dyer gave a grapho-analysis demonstration. The secretary reported that from January 1 to March 8, 130 new members were enrolled in the local Townsend club. A report from the state office states that 2406 members enrolled in Oregon Townsend clubs from February 8 to the 22.

A flash from Washington, D. C. from Congressman Frank Hook of Michigan—"I believe that the Townsend bill is more sound economically than any bill that has been introduced. It will receive not only my vote, but my sincere and active support. I offer my service to obtain the signatures of as many other members of the House, as is within my power."

Another flash—The State Old Age Pension League of the state of Washington heartily and unanimously has gone on record to support the passage of the newly proposed Townsend Gross Income Tax Bill HR8264. We look forward to many other state groups joining our national effort.

Another flash—"Senator Lemke of North Dakota has broken down the gay rule of secrecy regarding the names of those who place their signatures on petitions. Last year we were unable to learn which congressman had signed our petition, but thanks to Senator Lemke. We will know this year who signs their name on our petition."

Each week the Townsend group is getting important flashes from Washington, D. C., and we invite everyone to the meetings to hear these. Next meeting will be March 22 in the Legion hall at 8 p.m. Every member is urged to be present.

The club council will meet at the Morehouse home Tuesday night.

The Townsend group is urging every one who has not registered, to do so at once. The membership cards are now ready. Those who have not their's are asked to call at the club or get them from Secretary Hartley.

Several car loads of local club members attended the Townsend dance at Boardman Saturday night.

GARDEN LOVERS TO HAVE PROGRAM

Oregon State College—This campus will become the center of interest for Oregon garden club members and others interested for the week end May 3, 4 and 5, when an educational program for garden enthusiasts will be combined with prepared tours of 50 Corvallis gardens. The entire program has been worked out in cooperation with the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs in connection with the current campaign to install already constructed decorative iron gates at the entrance to the state college campus.

Climax of the three-day program will be a large outdoor garden tea to be held on the Memorial Union lawn Sunday afternoon, May 5. Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, wife of the governor, Mrs. Beatrice Walton Sackett, member of the state board of higher education, officials of garden clubs and wives of state college officials are included among many accepting invitations to participate.

We are at the same location. You will find us preaching the kind of salvation that saves from all sin. It is a battle in which we are engaged, for we are not called to uncleanness but unto holiness, and whether you come at 10 or 11 a. m., or 6:30 or 7:40 p. m. you will still find us saying that, "Without holiness no man shall see God. A warm welcome awaits all who come."

The Palm Sunday service will be built around the traditional theme, "The Triumphant Entry." The timely message of Jesus at that hour needs to be voiced today in view of so much that is so un-Christian. Prepare for the joys of Easter by going to church this Sunday. Our services are at the usual hours. A cordial welcome will be extended to you if you care to attend our services.

Evening worship at 8:00 p. m. Special Palm Sunday service with music by choir. Good Friday service on March 22 at 8:00 p. m. Lord's supper will be observed, Special music and sermon. All are invited. Ladies aid meets at church on March 14. Election of officers.
