PILGRIM HOLINESS CHURCH

Alice Norris, Pastor
We are again extending the invitation to meet with us as a people to worship in Sunday School, church and mid week prayer meeting. We are grieved that so many are not in services anywhere.

There is coming a reckoning day for Hermiston. Only two classes of people will be there, saint and sinner, clean and unclean, sheep and goats. On which side of the fence are you? You can know now. Remember there are lots of goats in the sheep fold, but there is coming a day of separation.

HERMISTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Grayden D. Loree, Pastor
Our Sunday morning text will be "But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Phil. 4:19. The lilies and the sparrows are objects of God's love and care; how much more man was created in His own image! Why worry? God's supply is not limited.

Our evening message will be concerned with Daniel, chapter 6, wherein we find the old yet ever new story of Daniel in the lions den.

METHODIST CHURCH

Stearns Cushing Jr., Pastor
The sermon theme for the morning worship service will be, "Losing One's Life." The key-note of Jesus' preaching was life. Is your life all you desire it to be? If it isn't you are invited to unite with us in our services. The messages which you will hear are fundamental in doctrine yet using modern methods and techniques of approach. The demand is for something practical in religion. That is our specialty. You will find a cordial welcome.

HERMISTON UNION CHURCH

C. Warner, Pastor
One hundred and thirty-eight were in our Sunday School last Sunday. If you are not attending anywhere, why not avail yourself of the opportunity? Edgar Hoover says, "There is one cure for the ills of our country and that is our people interested in the Sunday School."

The sermon for our Sunday morning worship service will be "The Ever Abiding Christ," and for the evening service, "From Saul to Paul."

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST

The topic of next Sunday evening's lecture, April 14, delivered by Ivan Schaber, will be "The Apostolic Sabbath" or the New Testament Sabbath." This subject is one which to many people has not been clearly presented. Eight texts will be taken up together with their contents and you may conclude as to what is meant by the First Day of the Week. So be sure and be there. All are invited to attend at 7:45.
