COLUMBIA NEWS

By Mrs. Baxter Hutchison

Mrs. T. M. Ellis celebrated her 19th birthday last Thursday when a group of near neighbors came in for the occasion. She received many lovely bouquets of flowers and other presents. Ice cream, cake and punch were served. The affair was arranged by her daughter, Mrs. Forrest Moore who was assisted by Mrs. Elmer Ryland and Mrs. W. A. Mikesell.

The newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Melvil McKnight were given a friendly welcome to our community Tuesday evening when between 30 or 40 neighbors gathered at their home. The affair was in the nature of a shower. After the gifts were opened by the bride, the groom treated the crowd to ice cream. Lemonade and cake were also served.

Ruby Hooker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hooker, was honor guest at a party given at her home last Saturday afternoon by her mother. It was Ruby's 6th birthday and a lovely angel food cake with pink frosting and candles was served, in addition to ice cream and punch. Those

BUCK BENNY RIDES IN DAFFY WESTERN

It's a hard riding, straight-shooting, two-fisted Jack Benny, a mighty tough hombre, who appears in "Buck Benny Rides Again," the newest screen vehicle of the famous film and radio comedian, which starts Sunday at the Oasis theatre.

The story of this new Benny picture thrusts Jack, who hates fresh air, into the wide open spaces. He pretends to be a cattle rancher in order to make an impression on his best girl—played by Ellen Drew. To carry out the deception, he has to ride herd, although he fears horses the way a good man fears the devil. By bribing the cowhands to permit themselves to be roped around by him, he gains a reputation as a sort of modern Wild Bill Hickok, but this elaborate deception is destroyed when he runs up against a real band of cattlerustlers and bandits. How Jack outwits them, and emerges a somewhat synthetic hero, but a hero nevertheless, forms the basis for the rest of the story.

The story is, of course, a vehicle for the Benny line of gags and wisecracks, the nifty dancing and scene-stealing of Rochester; Phil Harris and his orchestra, Andy Devine's gravel-throated humor, the acrobatics of the Abbot troupe, and the lovely charm of Miss Drew, to say nothing of the song hits of the team of Frank Loesser and James McHugh.

IT'S ALL IN THE MAKING

QUESTION "Aren't popular Eastern oils better than 'RPM'?"

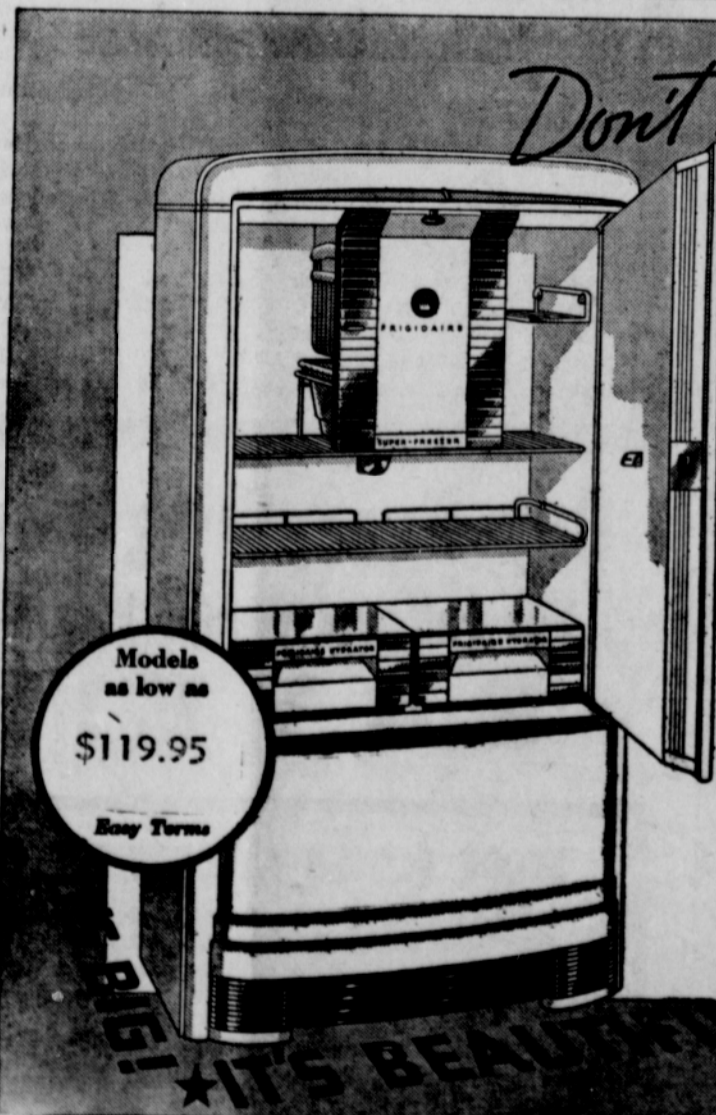

ANSWER Definitely NO! How an oil is made is more important than where it comes from. "RPM" is made by a costly process never before used. It has all the good features of the best Eastern oils—plus!
