"WISH I COULD SEE THEM ALL,"
 says Helen

Showing the grace and form that have made her the world's champion woman diver, pretty Helen Crenkovich, bound for an eastern tour, admires (upper picture) the new Standard Oil color reproductions of Western scenic glories. "I'd rather see these places than all the rest of the country put together," she said. "Maybe next year I can." Standard's color pictures are being distributed free to motorists by Standard Service Men everywhere.

STANDARD OIL CO. RELEASES PICTURES

With millions of color reproductions of western scenic views already received by motorists, Standard Oil company of California is now distributing a new and remarkable view of the Rogue river, E. D. Gardner, branch manager, announced here today.

"Any motorist is welcome to a copy of this fine color reproduction, as long as they last," said Mr. Gardner. "There is no obligation to buy anything."

"We want to provide every western home with one of these rare and beautiful color prints. They can be framed at very little cost and become a source of permanent pleasure. Most of all, we want the people of the west to see more of their own scenic wonderlands."
