FREE SHOWING OF '24-HOUR SERVICE' AT OASIS FRIDAY

Vivid airplane shots of the Columbia river basin, ranging from the mouth of the mighty river to the picturesque Wallowa mountains and from the fruitful Yakima valley to the pine-blanketed Deschutes country, are one of the many features of "24-Hour Service," a sound movie scheduled for free showings at the Oasis theatre here Friday, September 20.

Into every corner of the territory it serves, Pacific Power & Light company, producer of "24-Hour Service," sent the cameraman to record the industry and resources of each locality. Historic spots, outstanding scenic points, and local people at work and at play throughout the Columbia river area are pictured.

Pilot of the plane from which the aerial portion of the picture was taken was Roy Shreck, aerial weather observer once lost in the wilds of western Idaho for several days following a crash on one of his meteorological flights.

Basically the picture is a fast-moving and dramatic story of the electric power industry, picturing the complex generation, transmission and distribution processes of modern electric service. On this groundwork is built the whole fascinating picture of this part of the Pacific Northwest, with many sequences showing various local industries of the region at work.

MISS FOLLETT IS BRIDE HERE SUNDAY

Miss Bonaie Jean Follett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Follett, became the bride of Frank Lawrence Hansen, son of Mrs. Fred Holmquist, at a simple ceremony in the Hermiston Baptist church last Sunday morning, with Rev. Grayden D. Loree officiating. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hansen are well known here. Mrs. Hansen having graduated from local schools and Mr. Hansen has been a resident here for the past two years.

The bride wore a floor length dress of white satin with a finger tip veil and carried a shower bouquet of white asters. Her only attendant was Miss Elna Holmquist, the groom's sister. The latter wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of orchid asters.

R. Bruce Follett, the bride's brother, was best man. Ushers were Milva and Robert Follett, cousin and brother of the bride respectively.

Preceding the ceremony the Follett sisters trio sang a special arrangement of "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Mel Follett, who also played the wedding march. A reception followed the ceremony in the study of the pastor.

The couple left for a short honeymoon trip into the mountains and upon their return will be at home in the Hiline apartments.
