

YOU WILL WONDER
how your co-op store is able to sell at such low prices and at the same time feature such high grade merchandise. The answer is simple. We have the lowest overhead of any store in the community. It costs less for us to serve you. We are also now taking advantage of cash purchasing. There is a considerable saving that results from this policy. Trade discounts on many items and other economies realized by paying cash amount to a tidy saving.

Patronize your co-op store fully and you will see it now grow steadily in its ability to save you money.

correspondence school under the sponsorship of Mr. Rohman. Additional guests were R. C. Craig of R. M. Wade & Co. of Portland, M. E. Knickerbocker, Stearns Cushing, Leander Quiring, R. C. McReynolds and A. A. Estle. A turkey dinner was served by wives of Rohman employees.

Members of the class are Ed Benschel, Robert Benschel and Raymond Knapp of Hermiston, Hubert H. Carnes of Pilot Rock, R. E. Moore of Boardman and Harry Rueber and Leo Rueber, both of Stanfield. Further classes and field demonstrations will be held in the near future. Further details of the classes will be published from time to time.

Gordon Shown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shown of Hermiston, was awarded one of the first prizes at the Four-H club show held Saturday at Fruitvale. Gordon was awarded a registered calf, valued at about $50, by Sears, Roebuck & Co., for producing the champion gilt at the show.

Gordon's gilt and the one belonging to Barnard Tomlinson of Ferndale tied for points and the company graciously awarded similar awards. Other Hermiston youths won honors but failed to bring home a great deal of prize money. They were accompanied by M. E. Knickerbocker, assistant county agent.

MILLING FIRMS TO AWARD PREMIUMS

Through the cooperation of the Farm Bureau Mill of Hermiston, four milling companies of Portland and Spokane will award special prizes at the fair this week end. These prizes will be in addition to the regular awards listed in the premium books. The divisions are listed below.

To the winning graded herd of the Jersey, Guernsey and combined herds the Crown Mills of Portland will award a 25-lb. sack of Crown Calf Meal.

To the champion female of each breed of the 4-H division dairy stock the Albers Bros. Milling Co. of Portland will award a 25-lb. sack of Calf Mana.

To the best cooked food exhibit the Sperry Flour Co. of Spokane will present a 49-lb. sack of Drifted Snow Flour.

To the best general display of needlework the Sperry Flour Co. will present a 25-lb. sack of Drifted Snow Flour.

To the best pen of four pullets of each breed of chickens the Brown Jeklin & Co. of Portland will award a 2-lb. can of Nopco XX.

To the best poultry display (all breeds) the Sperry Flour Mill will award a 100-lb. sack of Surelay.

To the best young tom of each breed shown the Brown Jeklin & Co. will award a 2-lb. can of Nopco XX.

LOCAL MINISTERS ATTEND MEETING

Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Warner, Rev. and Mrs. Grayden Loree and Rev. and Mrs. S. Cushing attended a meeting of the Umatilla county ministers at the Pendleton Methodist church Tuesday.

The meeting began with a devotion after which a pot luck dinner was enjoyed. In the afternoon Miss Dulcinea Brown, director of religious education for the Portland Council of churches, gave an address of the place and need of week-day religious education. After a discussion period, the meeting adjourned when they had set up a County Ministerial association. Rev. Earle Cochran of the Pendleton Presbyterian church was elected president and Rev. Loree of Hermiston, secretary.

F. B. AUXILIARY TO ELECT OFFICERS

The next meeting of the Farm Bureau Auxiliary will be held Friday, October 4. All members are urged to be present as an election of officers will be held. There will be some important business to transact. At the last meeting, September 20, a jolly crowd of ladies had a good time with a prize donated to the lady telling the best falsehood. After considerable debate, a straw vote was taken with the prize going to Mrs. Grace Foster.
