ALTAR SOCIETY

METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Stearns Cushing, Pastor
"The Quest of Christian Living," will be the theme of the worship service for Sunday, October 27, at 11 o'clock. It has been said, "Much religious preaching and teaching failing to touch everyday" is one of the chief difficulties to religious thinking. Do you like sermons aimed to overcome this criticism?
William Jennings Bryan once said, "Every man has a double relation to life: he creates and contributes to others; he collects for himself. Some men," he went on, "are so busy collecting that they have no time to think of creating and contributing; and some men are so busy creating and contributing that they have no time to think of collecting." In which group are you?
Remember the Church School at 10 and the Epworth League at 7.

CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST
C. Warner, Pastor
Sunday morning we shall worship around the theme, "The Reality of Redemption," the seventh in our series of eight great Christian convictions. The sermon for the Sunday evening worship will be "The Holy Spirit."
The special music Sunday morning will be an anthem, "He Careth For Thee," by the choir, and a solo by Mrs. C. Warner.
Choir rehearsal Monday evening at 7:30. The choir has begun work on a Christmas cantata. Anyone desirous of assisting in telling the Christmas story in song is invited to meet with the choir on Monday evening.

PENTECOSTAL TABERNACLE
S. E. Graves, Pastor
Sunday, 10 a. m., Bible school. Our lesson, "The Healing of the Lame Man," Acts 3.
11 A. M., Miss Gifford, just returned from Hawaii, will be speaking.
7 P. M., Young people's service, Miss Gifford will again be speaking.
7:45 P. M., evening service.
Wednesday, 7:45 p. m., mid-week service.
Don't forget these services. I know you will enjoy each one. Every one is invited.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST
He is coming! A counterfeit Christ. Who is he? The answer will be given from the Bible in the second of a series of evangelistic meetings at the Seventh Day Adventist chapel, Fourth and Ridgeway streets in Hermiston Friday evening, October 25 at 7:45 p. m.
The tide of world events has set people to wondering what the outcome will be and how civilization can stand much longer. The second coming of Jesus Christ as the climax of history will be the central theme of the lecture Friday evening.
Special features at the service will be a vocal solo by Mrs. Alton Kingsbury. Cleve Henriques of Jamaica will also play some solos on the violin.
