We the people need to develop and to increase our skill in representative and collective action in order that our rights and privileges as citizens of this Democracy may not be lost. ## GARDEN CLUB CHATS

by Mrs. Vera Doyle

We know that everyone in this community should make an effort to be at the Christmas silver tea December 13 in the Legion hall. The tea will be in the afternoon and our meeting will begin at 2:30 p. m. Miss Ruth Walker from the Pacific Power & Light company of Pendleton will be our guest speaker. Her topic will be on Christmas lighting. This is an opportunity for us to take advantage of ideas and inexpensive ways to light our homes for the Christmas lighting contest. The speaker has used these as the theme for her talk.

Too, don't forget you have a chance to make an entry for Christmas table arrangements. These will be on display at our meeting and will be given a chance to vie for a prize. These will give at least a dozen suggestions for decorating our tables.

The proceeds from the silver tea will be turned over to the lighting chairman, Mrs. W. E. Logan. It will be used for prize money in the different classes of the contest. There will be first and second prizes.

We do cordially invite you to attend our Christmas silver tea.

Please remember to cut out the entry blank that is printed in this paper. This is your only way of receiving one. Tell the non-subscribers that they may get a paper from the Herald office for the asking. Leave your signed entry blanks at the Herald office.

Former Resident Heard From
Mrs. W. A. Hineine of Hermiston received a letter recently from Mrs. Simon Cassidy who was Virginia Boone of Minnehaha district in her girlhood days. Her husband is editor of a prominent newspaper at McAlester, Texas, in the citrus belt, and she has two children. Her brother J. Peyton Boone, is with his uncle at Norfolk, Virginia, in a paper manufacturing business. Many pioneer residents here will recall the tragic death of her mother and little sister from burning about 20 years ago.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST

Death has brought sorrow into everyone's life. Death will finally take even our lives—then what? Men have been answering this question by theories since time immemorable. God's Word gives one clear answer which you should know. This important question will be discussed at the weekly Friday evening lecture in the Seventh Day Adventist chapel.

Bring your Bible questions to be answered in an interesting question and answer service. Come early and enjoy an old fashioned gospel song service at 7:45 P. M.
