CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST

C. Warner, Pastor

We shall worship Sunday morning with the thought, "The History of Redemption" as the center of our worship. Because of illness our Bible School dropped to seventy-five last Sunday. There are classes and fine teachers for all ages. If you are not attending Sunday School in any one of our fine churches, we invite you. We trust we shall be back well beyond the 100 mark by next Sunday. Sunday School at 10, worship service at 11, Christian Endeavor groups at 7 p. m. and evening worship service at 8 o'clock.

An all church party will be held in the basement of the church Friday evening of this week, December 27. All members of the church are urged to be present. It will be in the nature of a reception for the new members recently added to the church roll, 27 in number.

PILGRIM HOLINESS CHURCH

C. R. Bennett, Pastor

Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. Lesson: "Jesus Requires Faithfulness." Morning devotionals at 11:00. The message by the pastor.

Young people's society at 6:30. Evening church service at 7:30.

Prayer meeting Wednesday night at 7:30. Friday night prayer meeting at 7:30.

The public is invited to join us in these services. "I never knew a man escape failures, in either mind or body, who worked seven days in a week." Attend Sunday School next Sunday.

Christmas Party Enjoyed

The annual Christmas party for the Woman's Study club was enjoyed by 20 women, and three guests. The executive committee of Mesdames Shelton, Green, Jouannault and McCormick were in charge. Following a delicious turkey dinner at the Ayres Cafe, the party proceeded to the home of Mrs. Jake Rueber where the gifts were found at the base of a most beautiful fir tree brought from Enterprise by Floyd Wood.

Miss Jennie Albon and John Albon were honored with plates being conveyed to their home by Mrs. Richards, who also was in charge of a box for the Doernbecher hospital. Mrs. Edna Fisk became a member of the club.

Ira Hughes recently bought the 20-acre farm and home about six miles northeast of town from Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Greene. Mr. Hughes is in the wood retail business in Pendleton and he and Mrs. Hughes will probably move down here in the spring.
