Local Happenings

Mrs. Mabel Ralph and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner were Pendleton callers last Friday.

Harold Marble, senior at O.S.C., arrived here Monday for the funeral of his brother Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice O'Daniel of Pendleton has moved to Hermiston and will reside at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Little, formerly of Hermiston, now living in Enterprise, will celebrate their silver anniversary Friday, March 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrnie "Tiny" Caldwell made a week end trip to Lewiston, Idaho, where they visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. F. C. McKenzie, Mrs. C. M. Jackson, Mrs. E. P. Dodd and Mrs. R. Alexander went to Pendleton Tuesday to attend a meeting of the Pioneer club.

N. W. O'Donnell went to Portland last Friday and returned home Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. O'Donnell who had been visiting her daughter there for some time.

Glenn Warner, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. Warner, spent the week end at his home here. He is attending Northwest Christian college at Eugene. Rev. and Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Levi Reeder took Glenn back as far as The Dalles where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Duvall.

Rev. and Mrs. Grayden Loree are parents of a baby boy born Wednesday in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Paul Melvin weighed six pounds, three ounces at birth and is the Loree's second child.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eye-sight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, March 12. Hours 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. 29-1c

Mrs. Minnie Brown of Portland, who has spent the past month visiting here with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gimble, returned home this week after visiting for a short time at Boardman.

Ralph Marble, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Marble, arrived home Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother. He is with the U. S. army air service and is stationed at Lowry Field, Denver, Colo. He will return Monday.

Mrs. Ralph Richards was a pleasant hostess Wednesday afternoon at four tables of dessert bridge. Mrs. George Harkenrider was awarded first prize and Mrs. Martin Refvem of Stanfield, second.

Word was received here this week of the birth of a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Al Malden of Fairbanks, Alaska, born March 3. Mrs. Malden is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morse went to Heppner Sunday to visit relatives. Mrs. Casha Shaw, mother of Mr. Shaw, returned to Hermiston with them for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Quiring and Mrs. Elvin Quiring and daughter Julie of Dallas came Monday to visit in Hermiston at the homes of Alfred and Leander Quiring. They will remain for about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn S. Warner of Palo Alto, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Somner W. Warner of Collins, N. Y., made a trip to Walla Walla and Pendleton Wednesday.

Florence Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Andrews, was pleasantly surprised on her 9th birthday Sunday when a group of neighbor children were invited for a party. In the afternoon the group enjoyed a show.

Mrs. J. F. Lane of Stanfield is now employed at the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery in Hermiston. She has replaced Mrs. A. Monroe Swarner (formerly Miss Maxine Faust) who will leave soon with her husband for Fairbanks, Alaska.

Wm. Shaar, local barber, who has spent the past several months in a Portland hospital, came home last week but has made several trips back during the past week. He stated Thursday that he will be back on the job next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fischer returned to their home in Eugene Sunday following a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dodd. Mr. Fischer has spent the past five weeks in eastern states on lumber interests while Mrs. Fischer has visited here with her parents.

Miss Virginia Wells, who has been in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton since December 28, returned home Thursday. She is getting along nicely but it will be some time yet before she will be able to get out. Miss Lavina May Lynch is still confined in the hospital.

Hugh Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fraser, arrived here Sunday from New York where he is employed with the Anaconda Copper Mines.

Dr. Fraser made the trip west by airplane, arriving in Pendleton Sunday. He expects to remain for several weeks.

Mrs. Walter Smith, who was called to La Grande last week by the illness of her daughter Mrs. Lynn Anderson, is still there. Latest reports are that Mrs. Anderson is getting along nicely.

Elvin Quiring of Dallas arrived Saturday to work in Hermiston. In the mornings he will be employed at The Herald office and in the afternoons at Burnham & Burnham. He is a brother of Alfred and Leander Quiring.

FISHERMEN AWAIT TACKLE SALESMAN

Hermiston disciples of Isaak Walton are eagerly awaiting the opening of the season May 3. A salesman of fishing tackle will be at Hale's Confectionery and Sporting Goods Tuesday, March 11, to display a large selection of tackle and equipment.

Roy Hale is inviting all fishermen of Hermiston and surrounding territory to see the display.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our neighbors and friends for the kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and death of our husband, son and brother, C. O. Marble. We especially thank those who presented floral offerings and assisted otherwise.

BENSEL NAMED ON COMMITTEE

Oregon State College—Kenneth Bense, Hermiston, has been named assistant chairman of the reception and invitations committee for the annual Agriculture club conference to be held March 6, 7 and 8 on the Oregon State college campus. Bense is a freshman in agriculture at O. S. C. This conference, the second of its kind, will bring together students, faculty and men of the northwest engaged in agriculture. The first conference was held last year at the University of Idaho.

The twelfth annual agriculture club banquet will be held, in connection with the conference, Thursday night, March 6, in the Memorial Union ballroom. E. B. MacNaughton, Portland, chairman of the Oregon Economic council and one of Oregon's business and civic leaders, is scheduled as the main speaker. The title of his speech will be "What of the Future".
