Local Happenings

Mrs. R. Alexander is spending this week with relatives in Pendleton.

Mrs. Lona Allen and grandson of The Dalles spent the week end at the Guy Shaw home.

Mrs. Casha Shaw, who has spent the past few weeks visiting at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw, left for her home in Heppner Tuesday. Albert Wilderson of that city was here for the day and Mrs. Shaw accompanied him home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Strohm and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Neill Conover of Holstein, Iowa, made a trip to Grandview, Wn., Monday and to Bonneville dam Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Conover are leaving Saturday via Salt Lake for their home.

Sad news was received here of the death of the little infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hedwall of Aberdeen, Wn., March 1. She was born February 28, being only one day old. Mr. and Mrs. Hedwall are formerly of Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Pierson of La Grande were Sunday visitors at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Pierson.

Lewis May of Grass Valley took over the interests of Clarence Keys in the service station at the east end of Main street last week. Mr. May's family consists of Mrs. May and 16-months-old boy.

Guy Shaw, manager of the Inland Cooperative, was a business visitor in Pendleton Friday.

Miss Marjory Burnham, Miss Rosemary Serell and Miss Eleanor Tischler were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

J. H. Reid, who was taken suddenly ill about two weeks ago, appeared on the streets of Hermiston again this week. Although still rather weak he is well on the way to recovery.

Frank Woughter, Union Pacific agent in Hermiston, has not been working several days this week. He spent Wednesday in Pendleton checking on the general condition of his health.

Miss Margaret Boylen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Boylen of Salem but formerly of Hermiston, left recently for Washington, D. C., where she has a civil service position. She is a sister of Ben and Jim Boylen of Hermiston.

Hugh Fraser, who has spent the past two weeks visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fraser, will leave Friday for New York where he is employed with the Anaconda Copper Mining Co. He made the trip west by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Quiring, who had spent the past week visiting here at the homes of their sons, Alfred and Leander Quiring, returned to their home in Dallas Monday morning. They were accompanied by Mrs. Leander Quiring who will spend a week visiting relatives in the valley.

Miss Mary Burnham, teacher in the Watsburg schools, spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. J. S. Burnham.

Boon Watson, 88 years of age, was a visitor on the streets of Hermiston Saturday. Mr. Watson is well known by old timers here. He now resides at Thorn Hollow.

The next in a series of programs by the National Assemblies association will be presented at the local high school Thursday, March 20. A group of marinettes will perform during the entertainment.

Mrs. Grayden Loree and infant baby boy returned home Saturday from St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Both are doing nicely.

Mrs. Walter Smith left Sunday for Pontiac, Mich., where she will pick up a new car for her daughter and son-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Anderson of La Grande. Mrs. Smith will be gone approximately a month and will visit relatives and friends in Nebraska, Illinois, Kansas and California.

Mrs. W. L. Suddarth of Irrigon was a business visitor in Hermiston Tuesday morning.

Miss Joyce McCulley spent the week end in Pendleton.

The Rohrman Motor Co. this week completed the final touches to the used car lot located across the highway. An oiled surface has been applied, driveway built and a steel fence surrounds the entire lot.

Mrs. Alfred Quiring and daughter Shirley Joanne returned home Monday night. They had spent since last Thursday in Dallas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Neufeldt. She was called to Dallas for the funeral of her grandfather.

The Hermiston American Legion auxiliary this week voted to increase the order of 800 poppies to 1200 and place an order for that number to the state veterans' hospital in Portland. The sale of poppies comes just a few days before Memorial day which this year comes on Friday, May 30.

High school seniors had their pictures "took" Tuesday for the high school annual which will go to the press soon. The pictures were taken by Kennell-Ellis Studios of Pendleton. Preliminary work on the annual has been underway for several weeks.

A combined miscellaneous shower and dessert luncheon was held at the Julius Gimble home Tuesday with Mrs. L. S. Burrell as the honor guest. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Gimble, Mrs. Stearns Cushing, Mrs. Preston Holloman and Mrs. R. L. Woolley. Approximately seventeen guests were present for the afternoon.

Dinner visitors commemorating the birthdays of J. P. Morse and Bob Putnam Sunday at the Morse home were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Morrison and small son Jimmie of Princeton, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Putnam of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Corpe, Mrs. Ellen Putnam Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Putnam, Mrs. J. P. Morse and Presley Stillings.

Hermiston students who are attending the various institutions of higher learning will be home next week because of spring vacation, which will be from March 14 to 24. Students who are fortunate to escape late examinations are expected home this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bone and Mr. and Mrs. John Bone, all of Salem, spent the week end at the Leander Quiring home. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bone are parents of Mrs. Quiring and John is a brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Smith and her father, Henry Stoop, stopped in Hermiston Sunday en route to Enterprise from Yakima, where they had spent the week end. While there they attended a reunion of the Stoop family. Mr. Stoop has been spending a week in Enterprise with his daughter. He returned to his work at the Stanfield CCC camp this week.

Mrs. Arleta White left last week for Portland and from there continued on to Eugene. Later in the week she boarded a train for Berkeley, Cal., where she will make her home with a daughter, Miss Margaret White. Miss White is a librarian at the University of California. A card from Mrs. White, received here this week, stated that the scenery she had seen was beautiful but her heart was
