persons attending all three of the parties will have a chance on a grand door prize. The grand prize will be on display Saturday evening. Checkers and other games will be provided for those who do not play cards. Refreshments will be served. The games will begin promptly at 8:15, and the public is invited to enjoy a fine evening among friendly people.

GRANGES HOLD JOINT MEETING

Members of Stanfield and Westland Granges in a joint meeting at Hermiston conferred the first two degrees on a class of four candidates with members of both Granges taking part in the degree work. The candidates initiated were Bobby Attebury, C. Tillery and Miss Gabriel of Stanfield, and Frank Caverhill of Westland.

It was announced that at the next meeting a degree team from the Triangle YGA of Freeewater would confer the third and fourth degrees, and it was voted to hold this meeting Friday evening, April 25, instead of the regular meeting night of Thursday with the meeting to be held in the Odd Fellows hall, starting at 8:30.

Childs Barham of Columbia Grange was a visitor at the last meeting, which was well attended by members of both the sponsoring Granges. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

SCHOOL CALENDAR FULL OF EVENTS

As is usually the case, the final months of a school year are crowded with activities. This is true in the local high school. The next week's schedule runs something like this: Saturday, April 19, Miss Teresa Bresslin and four members of the Girls' League will attend a conference at Lewiston, Idaho.

Monday, April 21, the tennis team performs at Pendleton. Tuesday, April 22, Pendleton high school will present a program in the local auditorium. Wednesday, April 23, the Heppner tennis squad comes to Hermiston. And so on down the line.

STANFIELD NEWS
By Mrs. Rose Hedrick
Mr. and Mrs. William Behme announce the marriage of their daughter Neva to Orville C. Kensler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Kensler of Bellefontaine, Ohio, at Moscow, Idaho, on April 12, by Rev. Owen J. Beadles of the Methodist church. They then visited friends at Pullman, Wn., returning Tuesday to Stanfield. Mrs. James Boylen (Laverne Thorsen) was honored with a bridal shower in the church parlors April 11. Preceding the opening of the gifts a program of skits, readings and music was presented by Mrs. Sue Waid. Miss Rose Hoosier played during the gift hour. Mrs. Ernest Greathouse and Mrs. Leora Heyden were assisted in serving by Miss Lorna and Miss Billie Gabriel and Miss Marie Tenney.

The annual guest day program presented by Mrs. Coleman April 10 in the church parlors also afforded great pleasure to about 50 who attended. The speaker was Miss Sadie Dunlap of Pendleton. Miss Ruth Cochran also attended.

On April 10, eight members of the Friendship Circle of Milton drove to Stanfield for an all day session at the home of Mrs. C. E. Fisk, a former member. A pot luck dinner was enjoyed.

On April 15th the Harmony club members were delightfully entertained at the new home of Mrs. Loughary. The subject was China, old and new, and all twelve members had a part in the program. Mrs. J. F. Rueber was a guest.

The H. E. club was entertained on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Floyd Daniels. Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. J. M. Richards were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Sykes and David who have spent two years in California, have returned to their alfalfa farm on the project. Teachers that have been elected to positions in the Stanfield school are Wilfred Thomas of Eugene, superintendent; Mrs. Sue Waid and Miss Irene Swanson in the high school, and in the grades, Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick, 7th and 8th grades, Mrs. Ruby Dadds and sixth, Mrs. Rachel Jackson third and fourth, and Miss Lois Messenger, first and second.

School district 61 recently refunded $28,000 worth of bonds, $10,000 of which draws 2 1/4 per cent interest, $18,000 at 2 per cent. Serial bonds are to be paid $2000 each year beginning in 1945.

The grades are busy preparing for the "Parade of the Nations" for school day early in May.
Mr. and Mrs. Leo Clark had as their guests Easter their daughter and family C. D. Conrad of Heppner, the Gene Clarks of Boise, and the Glenn Clarks of Walla Walla.

Ms Henrietta Helms visited her parents in Spokane over the Easter period.
A very interesting program is promised the public on April 22 at the Stanfield Grange hall when motion pictures will be shown of the Almagamated Sugar Industry at Nyssa, Oregon.
April 25 at the Methodist church in Hermiston will be heard the A Capella choir with their director, B. Ellsworth Harris. Miss Neva Hedrick, Tom Gibson, and Bob Gibson are among the singers from Pacific university.
