MANY ATTEND CONFRATERNITY MEET AT HEPPNER

Approximately 350 people attended the annual diocesan meeting of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine at Heppner Tuesday in the Eagles' hall under the auspices of Bishop Joseph McGrath of La Grande, bishop of the Catholic church in this diocese. The meeting was both inspirational and entertaining. A special meeting for the young people present was well attended.

Major topics for consideration during the day were the formation of adult discussion clubs, young people's study groups and summer schools. Bishop McGrath and Mayor Turner of Heppner were among the days' speakers. H. C. Harley of The Dalles, an extemporaneous "pinch hitter" proved to be a master entertainer.

At a noon luncheon served by the Heppner Grange, music was provided by orchestras and talent from towns within the diocese.

Among those attending from this section were: Father Cullen and Father Riordan, and the Mesdames Grimm, Loosvelt, Todd, McKenzie, Neary, Adkins, Louis Pearson, Hartsook, O'Donnell and J. Daugherty, all of Hermiston; and the Mesdames Pound, Kendler, Moran, Bousquet and Mary Margaret Kennedy, and Ruth Anne Sherlock of Umatilla. Young people attending from Hermiston were George Grimm and Frank McKenzie. From Echo attending were Mr. and Mrs. Picanzo, Bob Meechan, John Correa, Marian and Anne McGiran.

METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Stearns Cushing, Pastor

Whenever great crises come to a people, whether as individuals or as a nation, many sure cures are offered but the unfortunate thing is that most of them are just half-cures. This will be the subject for the morning worship service, "Half Cures". Christianity has an answer for your problem.
