NEW CALF CLUB AT STANFIELD

A new 4-H Dairy Calf club was organized at the home of Mrs. Virgil Hogg in the Stanfield community last Monday evening. This is the first agricultural 4-H club to be formed in this community for several years. Officers of the club are Bill Gilbert, president; Alida Picanso, vice president; Jim Hogg, secretary; and Junior Brown, reporter. The other members of the club are Francis Stephens, Andrew Lamont, Jim Lamont, Virginia Picanso, Elaine Hogg, Wendel Hogg, and Jim Quinn. Mrs. Virgil Hogg is to be the leader.

WEED CONTROL METHODS STUDIED

The belief that weed control is a serious problem right now and one that might become serious ten years from now was expressed by Lawrence Jenkins, weed specialist from Oregon State college, before a large group of farmers in the Stanfield Grange hall Tuesday night. Mr. Jenkins had spent the day surveying weed areas in the west end of the county and expressed alarm at the growth in size of some areas since his last visit. This district may soon find itself in the position of certain areas in other states where large acreages have been abandoned and taken off the tax rolls because of noxious weed infestations, Jenkins said.

Control measures which have already been undertaken were outlined by Assistant County Agent M. E. Knickerbocker, who explained that Umatilla county has had a tractor outfit clean-cultivating noxious weed patches in the Butter Creek area for a year, now, and that it was planned to expand this cultivation practice to weeds in the Umatilla Meadows and Stanfield districts this year. Wm. Meiners, county commissioner, assured the cooperation of the County Court in controlling weed patches on rights of way and other county-owned lands. County Agent Walter A. Holt discussed weed control districts, of which there is one in this county, and outlined that it might be necessary soon to invoke the provisions of this law in order to stop the spread of noxious weeds.

JAMES GANNON PASSES AWAY

James Gannon, aged 76, passed away at the Hermiston General hospital Thursday morning. Mr. Gannon was born in Baltimore, Maryland, and for many years was a track rider in the Wallula gap district. He lived in Hermiston during the last 29 years and spent a great deal of time in recent years prospecting in the mountains. Mr. Gannon had no known relatives. Funeral services will be held Friday at Prann's Funeral Parlors. Mr. Gannon was a Catholic.

CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST
C. Warner, Pastor

The pastor will be in attendance at the state Christian Endeavor convention in Klamath Falls over the week end. In his absence, Glenn Warner will deliver the Sunday morning sermon, using the topic "The Salt of the Earth." The young peoples department will have charge of the evening service.

The Eastern Oregon Convention of Churches of Christ will meet in Heppner Wednesday and Thursday of next week.
