The Pacific University A Capella Choir presented a pleasing concert to a large and appreciative audience at the local Methodist church last Friday night. The choir said that it was the largest crowd before which they had appeared this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Upham of the Columbia district are the proud grandparents of their third grandchild. Word was received recently of the birth of a daughter, Linda Cherie, to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Upham at the Deaconess Hospital in Salem. Mr. Upham is with the Bonneville power administration in the valley.

Miss Virginia Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wells, will return to work today (Thursday) at the office of the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery. Miss Wells was injured in an auto wreck the latter part of last December and has been recuperating from the injuries since that time.

Parents who accompanied members of the band and glee club to La Grande last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Preston Holloman, Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke and Mrs. Russell Pierson. They reported that the local groups did very well in their performance and compared very favorably with the other groups.

Mason Meyer, 90, who has resided in Hermiston for the past several years, passed away April 16 at Condon. He was buried from the Fossil Methodist church. He is survived by three sons, Ed of Service Creek, Arthur of Fossil and John of Copdon, and a daughter, Mrs. May Hardy of Hermiston. Mrs. Virgil Smith of Hermiston is one of the grandchildren. His wife passed away within the year.

Mrs. T. A. O'Grady stated Wednesday that she has a quantity of zinnia seeds on hand and anyone wishing to plant the official flower of Hermiston may have the seeds for the asking. Mrs. O'Grady's reputation for quality of flowers is well known in the community so the seed should be excellent.

A number of graduating seniors were guests at the meeting of the local Rotary club Thursday noon at the I.O.O.F. hall. "Nig" Borleske, district governor of the Rotary and long time coach of Whitman college was the speaker of the occasion. The boys were given an opportunity to tell what they wished to do after they receive their diplomas. The group which is half of the class included Leonard Mopps, Lvester Sargent, Junior Grimps, Carl Shaw, Ralph Crampton, Clarence Crampton, Lowell Sater and Frank McKenzie.

Pendleton Racketeers Here Monday

The strong Pendleton tennis squad will invade the local tennis court Monday afternoon for an inter-school match with the Hermiston Bulldogs. Comparative scores make the Pendleton squad the favorites but the local racket wielders are planning a surprise.
