Local Happenings

Dan Gray was confined to his home several days this week due to illness.

Mrs. Floyd O'Kelley and children of Tacoma, Wn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright.

Charles Rohrman, who suffered a broken arm in an accident in Walla Walla, Wn., recently, has completely recovered from his experience.

The Westland Grange is sponsoring a dance at the grange hall Saturday night with good music promised.

Carole Hammer presented Governor Charles A. Sprague a beautiful bouquet of peonies while he was in Hermiston Wednesday. Carole will receive a note of appreciation from Governor Sprague in a few days for her efforts.

Miss Ivadelle Fraser of Walla Walla is now serving as one of the switchboard operators at the Ordinance Depot.

Tom Fraser, who has been suffering from illness the past few weeks, is in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. His condition, however, is not considered serious.

Miss Delight Brockmeier of Portland arrived here Sunday and is living at the Watson home. She is employed on the Umatilla Ordnance project.

Mrs. Earl Greer of Norwood, Ohio, formerly La Velle Stephenson, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joe Hornsby and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright.

Mrs. Barbara Stevens of Weiser, Idaho, visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. O. Felthouse from Tuesday till Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Estle have moved from the Swarner place in the Columbia district to the new Watson bungalow on Gladys Avenue.

Marie Hinkle is now employed as assistant cashier at the Farm Bureau Cooperative office. She replaces Joyce McCulley who resigned in order to accept a position with the Oregon Hardware & Implement Co.

W. W. Felthouse and Dr. C. O. Waincott teamed up again this year for a jaunt to East Lake for the opening of the fishing season. Although they encountered snow and ice, the fishing was exceptionally good.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid met for their monthly all day meeting at the Watson home with Mesdames Watson, Virgil Smith and Ernal Sater serving as the hostesses. A good crowd was in attendance.

John Behrman of Kennewick, Wn., began work this week as assistant jeweler in the office of his brother, Armand, located in the Herald office. John is an experienced watch repair man.

Edward B. "Jack" Meyer, who graduated from the local high school last year arrived in Los Angeles this week to begin work in the Lockheed Airplane Factory. He took his preliminary training under the N.Y.A. in Pendleton.

Among those enjoying the opening of the fishing season over the week end were Otto Pierce and son Stanley who made the trip to East Lake. They report extremely cold weather but fishing fairly good. They were accompanied as far as Prineville by Miss Geraldine Mullins and Miss Marian Pierce.

The Soft Ball league is making fine progress with representatives from Tertelings, Stevens & Koon, Hale's and the Rotary club already definitely lined up, and several others probably coming in. Practice games are being played every night between the various teams with the regular schedule planned for about the first of June. The lighting of the field seems to be fairly well assured.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Agnew of Portland were visitors in Hermiston Saturday. Mr. Agnew is still quite enthusiastic about Hermiston and always seems to enjoy his visits here. He renewed his subscription to The Herald while here in order that he might keep up with the new developments.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seeliger went to Portland last week where they delivered a purebred Guernsey cow to the Northwest Purebred Guernsey sale. Mr. Seeliger reports the sale was well attended and the cows brought from $160 to $575. Mr. Seeliger received $250 for his cow which went to D. W. Barclay of Burlington, Wn., who owns one of the outstanding purebred Guernsey herds in the Pacific northwest. Mr. Seeliger also sold two Guernsey heifers.

A pretty vesture service was held Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church for a group of the Girl Scouts who received their Tenderfoot award. The Girl Scouts are under the leadership of Miss Constance Luehrs and her assistant, Mrs. Martha Gray. The service closed with a tea which was attended by a number of parents of the girls.

L. C. Dyer and daughter, Mrs. W. H. Bloom of Fairbanks, Alaska, left Monday for an extended visit in the east. They will visit Mr. Dyer's brother in Columbus, Ohio, and will also visit the old home of Mr. Dyer in Gallipolis, Ohio. While back east Mrs. Bloom will take delivery of a new car. They expect to be gone about two weeks.
