Local Happenings

H. C. Dykstra of Grandview, Wn., and B. I. Whitney were in Portland last Thursday on business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sisson are the proud parents of a baby boy born Friday in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. The young heavyweight weighed nine pounds, two ounces, and has been named Terry Alton.

Mrs. W. L. Morgan was a delightful hostess last Thursday at a bridge party for Mrs. W. Martin Marbut who will leave soon to reside with Dr. Marbut who is now stationed at Vancouver Barracks. Three tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. E. P. Dodd winning first prize. Mrs. Marbut was presented a lovely guest prize.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Ross of Shoshone, Idaho, arrived Tuesday to spend the remainder of the month with her daughters, Mrs. B. J. Nation and Mrs. Logan Todd.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eye-sight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, May 21. Hours from 1:00 to 5:00 p. m. 39-1c

D. E. Hoover, Scout executive of Walla Walla, met with the local Boy Scout troop committee Wednesday evening to discuss various matters pertaining to Scout work. Another meeting is planned for May 27 when all members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Dale Fischer of Eugene is visiting this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dodd. She made the trip as far as Pendleton by airplane.

Mrs. Elsie Mulkey and Lawrence Warner of Pilot Rock visited at the W. R. Struthers home last week. Sunday visitors at the Struthers home were Mrs. James Kramer and Mr. and Mrs. James Whittaker Jr., all of Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaar spent from Sunday till Tuesday evening in Portland where Mr. Shaar is undergoing special treatments. The Shaars report that there is a bad stretch of highway west of Arlington which makes a hasty trip to Portland somewhat rough.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Payne were in Heppner last Thursday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Chas. Cox. The latter was the wife of Mr. Payne's half brother. She was well known in American Legion circles, and well acquainted in this community.

Eleven tables of bridge were in play last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaar. Spring flowers were used profusely about the rooms. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Dick Hitt of Portland and Miss Laura Crawford, Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Warren Lee was awarded first prize and Mrs. F. B. Swayze, second. Other prizes awarded were to Miss Crawford, Mrs. Dale Fischer of Eugene and Mrs. W. M. Marbut who is leaving soon for Vancouver where her husband is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Nation and daughter JoAnn of Bonneville spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Nation. They returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. A. J. Ackley of Yakima, Wn., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Nation, arrived Sunday and remained to attend the graduation exercises Thursday evening. Her brother, Billie, is a member of the graduating class.

Richard Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Cox, was honored this week when he was asked to pledge Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising fraternity. Richard is a student at Oregon State and has been quite prominent in this line of work.

In last week's issue of the Herald a news item stated that Mrs. Gertrude Sanders was employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot as head telephone operator. This was somewhat exaggerated as the senior operator is Mrs. Jeannette Stover, formerly of Portland but more recently of Vancouver.

SACRED MUSICAL CONCERT MAY 25

The Hoffman Players of Pendleton will present a sacred musical concert in the Central Church of Christ Friday, May 23 at 8:00 p. m. The party consists of Rev. Lulu Hoffman, pianist and soloist, her 12 year old son who is a soloist and trumpeter, and Miss Carrie Beelar, vocalist and pianist.

The program consists of piano solos and duets, vocal solos, duets and trios, violin, harmonica, guitar and piano ensemble, trumpet and Hawaiian guitar solos. Among the numbers offered will be The Holy City, Adams: Calvary, Rodney: Whispering Hope; The Light That Guides; My Didn't Rain; and When I Get to Heaven, negro spirituals.

The pastor, Rev. C. Warner, invites the public to attend. A free will offering will be taken.

COLUMBIA SCHOOL GRADUATES TEN

Wednesday evening, May 14th, marked the graduation of the 1941 class of Columbia school. The class members include Clayton Buell, David Blahm, Donald Hug, Creston Buzzard, Junior Pardun, Theodore Pana-

TOWNSEND CLUB NEWS

By Mrs. Joe Udey

The dance committee reports that a very fine crowd enjoyed their recent dance, and that another good time will be offered at their dance Saturday, May 17. The committee asks for full cooperation, for the money made from the dances will go into the funds to pay for a delegate's trip to the national convention which will be held in Buffalo, N. Y., June 27.

Two car loads of Townsend members attended the district convention which was held in The Dalles Sunday.
