GATHERING HELD AT MEAD HOME

A family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Mead at Hermiston Sunday. Dinner was served at noon on tables under the large locust trees.

Mrs. Etta Dollarhide of Bellingham, Wn., motored down for the occasion, coming by way of Seattle where she was joined by her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Bessie

Brock and Miss Pauline Brock. They were accompanied from Oregon City by Mrs. Lillian Kasinger, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mead. Other relatives present were Mrs. Flora Moyer, Lillie and Emma B. Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Fuiten, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Griffin, Mrs. Reese Birkenbine and sons Forest and Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. S. Walker, Percy Cox and Stanley Cox, and the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Mead, George and Walter Mead, Miss Maxine Mead, Eugene and Shirley Mead.

This Mother's day gathering was the first reunion of the family in eleven years.

Miss Vera Sisson Honored

Oregon State College — Vera A. Sisson of Hermiston, freshman in secretarial science, was one of 60 freshman women pledged recently to Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic honor society for sophomore women, which gives recognition to those girls who make a high scholastic record during their freshman year.
