VOLTAGE REGULATOR TO BE INSTALLED HERE BY P. P. & L. CO.

A new large-type voltage regulator, a further step in the series of improvements Pacific Power & Light company is making in this area, is being shipped from the east and will arrive here within the next week for installation at the company's Hermiston substation, according to John A. Clarke, local manager for the Pacific company.

While actual installation of the equipment will be at the Hermiston substation, it will effectively regulate voltages and improve service in Echo, Umatilla and the entire surrounding rural territory. As shock absorbers steady the riding qualities of a modern automobile, the voltage regulator will automatically level out "bumps" caused by loads coming on or going off the lines.

Decision to install a large-type regulator was made after Pacific engineers completed a technical study of the electrical distribution problems of the former Hermiston Light & Power company. Load surveys and voltage tests indicated a further need for regulatory equipment as use of electricity increased under lower rates put in effect by Pacific Power & Light company after it acquired the local property last fall, said Clarice.

The new equipment will weigh more than four tons installed. Cooling and insulating tanks in the big regulator will contain 415 gallons of oil.

ROTARY CLUB PRESENTS GIFT

Rev. Stearns Cushing Jr. was presented a "gift" at the annual meeting of the local Rotary club Thursday noon. In fact, he was awarded three gifts in one, including a large dilapidated suitcase, an ancient pistol and an engraved pocket knife. Rev. Cushing is leaving soon for Washington, D. C., where he will be assigned to a chaplainship in the U. S. army.

Other business of the day included discussing of several projects of the club.

EMPLOYMENT HALL POPULAR PLACE

The local office of the Oregon State Employment agency has proven one of the most popular spots in Hermiston in recent weeks with workers from all parts of the country gathering here to register for work at the munitions depot site. According to Lynne E. Black, senior officer, placements have somewhat eased up during the past week, especially in truck drivers and carpenters.

Up to Wednesday noon the office had cleared 267 laborers, 180 carpenters and 115 truck drivers. Other classifications follow but in smaller quantities. Mr. Black stated that he has several calls on hand for farm laborers which he has been unable to fill.

HORSE SHOW TO DRAW FROM HERE

It is expected that quite a contingent from Hermiston will attend the Mustang Spring Show of racing, jumping, mounted drill, cow-horse events, saddle-horse stunts and gaited-horse exhibitions Sunday afternoon at the Round-up grounds in Pendleton. Activities are slated to get underway at 2:00 p. m.

Judges for the afternoon will be Sam Thompson of Pendleton and Dan Clark of Ashton, Idaho. Admission prices are 25c for adults and 10c for children under 12.

Miss Eva Wilcox will enter a horse in some of the events and will also appear in the mounted drills. Glen Wilcox, her brother, will also ride in several events.

LOCAL GIRL FLIES TO LOS ANGELES

Miss Evelyn Elder, employee in the office of H. T. Miller of the ordinance department, left Pendleton by plane Sunday morning for Los Angeles where she competed in the national bowling tournament as a member of the Vancouver, Wn., team. Miss Elder was a member of the Vancouver squad before coming to Hermiston and flew to Los Angeles to join her teammates.

Miss Elder, who has turned in numerous high scores on the local alleys in recent weeks, returned home Thursday. No report as to her success in Los Angeles has been forthcoming.

WEATHER WARMS UP THIS WEEK

It is expected that within a few days weather conditions will be back to normal following an extremely cool early May. A minimum of 39 was recorded Sunday night which is rather cold for this time of year. Some fear was felt for the wheat crop should this cold snap continue.

The report for the week according to Charles Taylor, city weather man, follows:

Date	Max.	Min.

May 15	76	43
May 16	73	50
May 17	64	51
May 18	65	42

May 20	80	50

A total of .09 precipitation was recorded.

The general chairman for the drive will tie the separate county organizations into a state-wide campaign structure.

A native Oregonian, Stockman has lived in or near Pendleton all his life, attending the public schools there and later Oregon State college at Corvallis.

How to protect the wheat growers of America against being engulfed in the rising flood of surplus wheat while maintaining adequate supplies for any future contingency is the present concern of the Agricultural Adjustment administration. If the marketing quota proclaimed recently is approved by growers on May 31, production will be controlled to a reasonable extent and wheat loans will be continued, says Will Steen, AAA chairman for Oregon.
