BIG TIME SLATED FOR FAIR SUNDAY

The closing day of the 80th Oregon state fair on Sunday, September 7, will bring one of the fullest days of the entire week's fair at Salem, with three big programs arranged for that day.

Sunday will be Fraternal day, with fraternalists from all parts of the state to gather on the grounds. Highlight of this observance will be the program and colorful drill team competition in the stadium at 1:30 o'clock. The fair will award six trophies in the drill events. For the program, Secretary of State Earl Snell will give the fraternal address.

Also at 1:30 o'clock, exhibition harness racing will get under way at the track, with two $500 stakes to be divided among winners in as many stake races. Special entertainment and circus acts are scheduled for between the races.

The closing major event of the fair will be the final presentation Sunday night of Funzappoppin, the outdoor extravaganza given each night during the fair on the grandstand stage. A cast of 75 actors, known to radio, stage, screen and circus, appears in Funzappoppin.

Saturday afternoon will see the last of the pari-mutuel races and also Saturday night will bring the last performance of the brilliant state fair horse show.

All fair exhibits will remain intact until late Sunday night, the management announces.

In connection with the Fraternal day observance, sponsored jointly by the Oregon Fraternal Congress and the fair, a parade of drill teams is scheduled over the grounds at 1 o'clock Sunday, and a picnic in the late morning hours.
