OUR FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE

Title of "First Line of Defense" can well be given those youthful farmers of America—the Boys and Girls of the 4-H Clubs.

The Pacific Northwest holds an enviable record in number of 4-H Clubs and members, having a total of approximately 5000 clubs, with membership of nearly 40,000 boys and girls, and a very high percentage in number completing their full time of training.

Mr. O. M. Plummer, General Manager of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, stated recently during an interview, "There is no question of the value of 4-H Club work in aiding in the Defense Program of our country"

To fully appreciate the work of the 4-H Clubs and how they aid our youthful farmers in the production of pure bred livestock, improved methods and greater efficiency on the farm and in the home, one should visit the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland, October 4th to 11th inclusive, where teams from 4-H Clubs throughout the Northwest compete in demonstrations of various projects by both boys and girls.

Other Exhibits at the Exposition will include Beef and Dairy Cattle, Sheep and Goats, Hogs, Horses, Poultry, Pet Stock, Dogs, Land Products, and Industrial Exhibits. Of special interest will be an Exhibit by the United States War Department.

Entertainment features will include the usual brilliant Horse Show and thrilling Rodeo, Six Horse team driving contest, and many other outstanding events. According to Mr. T. B. Wilcox, Jr., President of the Exposition, this year's entertainment program will equal any of the past years' programs, for unusual variety and exceptional quality.
