(Too late for last week)

A group from the local Grange attended the State Grange Council at Lexington Tuesday. Those going were Mrs. Tannehill, Mrs. Corwin, Mrs. Lily, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. McFarland and Mrs. Forbes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lily and Mrs. Art Allen drove to Portland over the week end to visit Mr. Allen who is convalescing in a Portland hospital.

Among those who went to the mountains to hunt elk this week were H. Ford, C. Dillon, E. Messenger, P. Smith, F. Jones, Reese, B. Rand and Laurence Smith. They went in cars driven by Ford, Jones and Rand.

Fifty new metal chairs have been received at the school where they were badly needed. It is planned to purchase 50 new chairs each year till a total of 150 is received.

A very successful play was put on by the Grange at the school auditorium Wednesday evening. After the play the cast was entertained by the finance committee.

Booster night was observed at the Grange Saturday evening. When refreshment time arrived it was discovered that a number of pies were missing, evidently the Hallowe'en spirit had carried over from Friday night.

Many tricks were played and much property was moved Friday night by Hallowe'en pranksters. Several mail boxes were torn from their posts and some carried completely away. Meddling with mail boxes is strictly against the law and will go hard with the perpetrators if caught.

because we are still in this world, we need not have the world in us. Sin ever seeks to intrude and grace ever seeks to exclude. There is a constant warfare. But the Word of God says that sin is not going to reign, that it shall not have dominion over you. God in His Grace will not allow it to do so.
