FARM BUREAU AUXILIARY HOST ON THANKSGIVING

The Farm Bureau and Farm Bureau Auxiliary were sponsors of a community Thanksgiving day dinner at their club house Thursday. Last year it was decided by the Auxiliary to make this event an annual affair and a large number of persons participate in last Thursday's dinner. In addition to persons of the community several employees at the ordinance depot were present. J. H. Reid acted as toastmaster and called upon several men and women for short talks. Following dinner music was furnished by a community orchestra of four pieces. The affair was declared a success and will doubtless be repeated another year. The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be December 5 with Mrs. Reid, chairman, Mrs. Jendzejewski and

Mrs. Hughes in charge of the meeting. Subject for discussion will be "National Highways."

MORE HELP NEEDED AT SEWING CLASSES

The sewing classes at the U. S. O. building have been active during the past few weeks but more help is needed to complete the project. It is urged that anyone who has a little time to spare attend these classes which are every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 2:00 to 5:00.

First aid classes are held every Thursday evening at 7:30 with Mrs. Albert Thews of Pendleton in charge. A total of 20 of these instructions will be given to complete the course. A junior first aid class has also been organized which meets during the same hour.
