Local Happenings

Mrs. O. O. Felthouse and Mrs. A. R. Boulware were business visitors in Pendleton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hodge made a business trip to Spokane, Wash., Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Stella Jackson of Freewater visited here for a short time Sunday. Mrs. Jackson formerly had a millinery shop here during pioneer days.

Mrs. H. R. Newport of Portland has spent several days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Swayze.

Miss Grace McDonald, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Serell, left Wednesday for her home in Spokane, Wash.

Miss Virginia Robertson, Miss Margaret Brown and Miss Alberta Johnson motored to Pendleton Saturday evening.

Mrs. F. B. Belt spent from last Thursday till Sunday visiting in Eugene and Portland. She attended the Oregon State-Oregon football game Saturday.

Don Serell, who has spent the past six months in the U. S. army at Camp Roberts, Cal., returned home this week. He was released and placed on the reserve list to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Serell, who have been in ill health. Don, who formerly was employed in the local post office and who soon will be back at his old stand, stated that he was glad to be back home although he didn't regret his time in the army. He stated that he visited with other Hermiston boys stationed there, all of whom are getting along nicely.

Ernest Hunt and Mrs. Casha Shaw were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Patten accompanied by Miss Marjory Waldow, Miss Mabel Rauch and Miss Jane Boyer spent Saturday evening in Pendleton.

Mrs. E. White entered the Hermiston General hospital Tuesday and is a medical patient.

Cleta Hunt was able to return to her home Wednesday after receiving medical care at the Hermiston General hospital.

Members of the Kennewick Kiwanis club were guests of the Hermiston Rotarians at a regular luncheon meeting Thursday noon. The entire group visited the Umatilla Ordnance Depot in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McKenzie received word this week of the birth of another grandson, Raymond Gerald McKenzie Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McKenzie of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Peter Poulsen and young son of Baker have been spending the past week in Hermiston with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Felthouse. Mrs. Felthouse and her father were among those present at the Oregon State-Oregon football game last Saturday.

Mary Lou Palmer returned to her home Wednesday after being treated at the Hermiston General hospital a few days.

John Ballack, who formerly served on the Hermiston police force, spent a short time in Hermiston Tuesday. Mr. Ballack will be employed at the Todd shipyards in Tacoma, Wn.

The Christian Endeavors of the Hermiston Central Church of Christ had a Thanksgiving party at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. Warner last Thursday. Each one brought a thank gift, which will be sent to the White Swan Mission at Yakima. During the evening, the monthly business was transacted. Many important things were discussed. After the business meeting a lunch was served by Betty Jean Jackson and Patsy Warner.

Will your packages contain practical clothing gifts? They are always so acceptable. We will be glad to help you select the gift that will be sure to delight the most fastidious.
