

MOVIE STAR JOINS U. S. NAVY

Ensign Wayne Morris Seeks Wings

Wayne Morris, recent star of "I Wanted Wings," became a member of Uncle Sam's Navy in May, 1941, when he was appointed to the rank of Ensign.

When asked what he thought of the United States Navy, Morris said, "I think every man who is considering joining a military service should look into the 'chance of a lifetime' which the Navy and Naval Reserve offer to get into the big-pay field of the future—aviation. In the Navy you can attend the finest flight training schools in the world, and receive instruction from Navy pilots who introduced dive bombing, aircraft carriers and catapult take-offs to the rest of the world. Also, there are opportunities in Naval Aviation for men who don't want to fly. They can be trained as aviation machinists, metalsmiths, photographers, observers, or they can receive instruction in many other trades. It's a great life in the Navy." Ensign Wayne Morris is pictured here in his line of duty as a member of the Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board at the Long Beach Naval Reserve Air Base.

Three Meals Daily Plan Generally Followed Here

The three-meal-a-day plan is the most generally followed in this country. We have never felt the need of officially breaking the interval which is between luncheon and dinner as do the English.

What may be called a typical American breakfast will give us a good start toward getting the proper quota of necessary nutrients for the day. We begin with fruit or fruit juice which gives us some of our mineral and vitamin supply. Children and many adults will be sure to have cereal, either hot or ready-to-eat, and this will be served with milk. From this combination we get some minerals and vitamins, some protein for tissue building and some fuel for the energy which we are going to use up during the day. As a final source we may have eggs or bacon or sausage with toast or rolls. The eggs should be used at least three times a week for the sake of their minerals and vitamins unless we are using them at some other meal. Sausage and bacon supply savorness which stimulates appetite and gives us a feeling of well-being. In sausage, we will find more of the protein which will give us a start toward what we need for the day.

Doing without breakfast is a bad habit which should not be encouraged. The stomach needs food after its 12 or more hours of rest.

Orthopedic Expert Says Army Shoes Don't Fit

The United States government, which is spending thousands of dollars daily for army shoes and has numerous inspectors examining shoes made for soldiers, has spent scarcely a penny for properly fitting the shoes for the men who must wear them, said H. L. Whitman, shoe inventor and orthopedic expert.

Whitman said every factory making army shoes has from five to eight inspectors checking output. "The government is spending thousands of dollars a day to see that army shoes are properly constructed," he said. "Why has it failed to spend money to see that the shoes are properly fitted to the men?"

He said he recently examined shoes of more than a dozen army recruits and National Guardsmen called to service. "In every case," he added, "I found that the shoes were improperly fitted. Every shoe was from a half-size to two sizes too short."

A scarcity of narrow shoes exists in the army, he stated, with a surplus of wide ones.

Smallest Incorporated Town

The town of Dellview, N. C., owes its incorporation to a band of dogs. Davis P. Dellinger and his two brothers ran a big poultry ranch. Dogs used to raid the coops. The county laws did not seem to afford enough protection. So Davis Dellinger, who was also a lawyer, hit on a plan to curb the depredations.

While county laws may or may not have been lax in dealing with stray dogs, the laws of incorporated towns were not. The Dellingers arranged for the legislature to incorporate their huge ranch into a town—a town of only eight inhabitants, perhaps the smallest burg of its kind. Then they enacted drastic laws for the destruction of ownerless dogs. They put those ordinances into effect so vigorously that soon the dog pack was wiped out.

This was in 1925. Later, the poultry business was given up, and the ranch was turned into a farm for the raising of hay and of vegetables. But it was still a legally incorporated town; and with the same population as at first.

Origin of Slang Words

Although many slang words and popular figures of speech are of unknown origin, more than few may be traced to the classics and to mythology, while others are found to have rich historic and romantic backgrounds.

Common expressions that are typical American include "anxious seat," which has a religious background; "tax per nose," originated with Odin, a legendary ruler of Sweden, who assessed a tax of one penny per nose; "well heeled," is a bird that has a good natural spur, or a well-placed steel gaff; and the picturesque "lock, stock and barrel" was given to us by the early American settler whose most important possession was his flintlock rifle, consisting of three parts, the lock, the stock and the barrel.

Glimpse of Old South

As the scene of one of the decisive battles of the world, Vicksburg, last stronghold of the Confederacy, offers the visitor a fascinating picture of the South as it was and is today.

One of the nation's longest and most beautiful scenic highways, U. S. 16 (Old Man River Trail), follows the Mississippi to Vicksburg where it junctions with another great transcontinental highway, U. S. 80.

A sight not to be missed by the traveler is the Vicksburg National Military park, best preserved and most completely marked major battlefield in the world.

One look at the towering bluffs, overlooking the greatest river in the world, and it is easy to understand why General Grant failed three times before he succeeded in breaking the Confederate stronghold.

BOARDMAN YOUTH WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Robert Smith of Boardman and William Duff of Pendleton were awarded the 1942 Union Pacific Future Farmer scholarships for Umatilla and Morrow counties.

A scholarship of $100 to help finance a college course is given each year by the Union Pacific railway to an outstanding boy taking vocational agriculture in each county served by the railway.

William Duff has carried on an extensive project in registered Herefords and in his senior year has added Austrian peas and bluegrass to his program. At Boardman Robert Smith is working with purebred Chester-White swine.

Scholastic standing, participation in Future Farmer activities, and participation in the school and community activities are considered in addition to the classroom and project work when giving the scholarships.

STANFIELD NEWS

By Mrs. Rose Hedrick

At the Citizen's Defense meeting held in the high school on December 14, intense interest was manifested. Many preparedness committees were named. The Red Cross committee obtained $125 with Mrs. Gilbert Smith and Mrs. Ernest Greathouse in charge, and before 24 hours expired they had more than reached their new quota and on Monday sent in $159 to headquarters.

This same committee set up a Healtrola stove at the library, the gift of M. Refvem's; so as to make those who sew and knit more comfortable.

An unusual "glad" Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Jess Richards on Tuesday afternoon with members of the Home Economics club as guests. Gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. Ellen Stillings was the honoree at a shower at the Nichols home on December 10. The twelve Harmony club members were the sponsors, and a good time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Mae Leonard was a Walla Walla shopper Tuesday.

Mrs. Max Pigar and Jerry went to Idaho Wednesday due to the death of an aunt. Mrs. Pigar will return before Sunday night when the 30 high school girls will give the cantata, "Night of Holy Memories" at the high school December 21. A black-out will not modify the music any, so everyone is urged to attend.

Owing to the wet night December 13, only a small crowd attended the bazaar, but a good sum of $47.86 was realized and the committees working all wish to thank those who attended.

Harry Wessell, Lucian Jouannault and Frank Sloan attended a district meeting of the Masonic lodge at Adams last Saturday night.

Several from Stanfield attended the funeral of Mrs. Dave McCarty, sister of Frank Sloan, at the Methodist church in Echo Tuesday.

The Study club enjoyed its Christmas luncheon and party at the home of Mrs. William Reeves on December 18. Guests other than members were Mrs. Munson, Mrs. Solly Vaughn and Mrs. J. Truman Jones. The committee in charge were Mesdames Shelton, Green, Hogg and McCormick.

DEFENSE Bonds and Stamps
SANTA CLAUS CAN HELP AMERICAN DEFENSE! This poster, drawn by J. W. and W. J. Wilkinson, a father and son artist team of Baltimore, reminds Americans that they can help the Defense Program this Christmas by giving Defense Bonds and Stamps in addition to the usual present. Nation-wide distribution of this poster has been made, especially in the windows of 500,000 retail stores where Defense Stamps—for as low as 10 cents—are now on sale.
