Local Happenings

Mrs. Glen Mosier enter the Hermiston general hospital Wednesday evening for medical care. She is critically ill.

John T. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson, left Wednesday for the Boeing Aircraft Corp. plant in Seattle to work.

H. O. Thompson, who resides north of Hermiston, returned last week from St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. He is feeling much better.

Charles Taylor, city recorder, was a guest of the Hermiston Rotary club Thursday noon at its regular meeting at the high school. The order of business for the day was a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" from each of the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fillpot of Walla Walla spent Monday at the Walter Jackson home.

Mrs. F. A. Bogart underwent a major operation Monday at the Hermiston General hospital. She is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Ruth Dyer and Miss Marjorie Waldow were business visitors in Pendleton Saturday afternoon.

A group of M. E. aid ladies met at the home of Mrs. O. C. Pierce Wednesday afternoon to finish some Christmas sewing.

Glen Barton, a medical patient at the Hermiston general hospital, was able to return to his home Thursday (today).

Wilbur Hinkel underwent a minor operation at Hermiston general hospital recently. He was able to return to his home Sunday.

Joe Reeves, known as the Hermiston globe trotter, left again Tuesday for a trip into the Willamette valley. His present address is Salem, Oregon.

Fred Rauch, Sr., of Butter Creek, motored to Corvallis Wednesday to get his son, August Rauch, a senior at O. S. C., who has completed his year.

A no-hostess dinner was enjoyed last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wilkes east of Hermiston. Jim Geer, who left Tuesday for a enlistment in the U. S. navy, was the honored guest. Present for the occasion were Mrs. Chas. Shown and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sisson and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Geer and Alice Geer, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Geer and family, Jim Geer and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wilkes and family. Jim Geer, who has previously served in the navy, left for Portland Tuesday.

YULETIDE GREETINGS TO ALL ..

Tis Christmas! Our thoughts revert from the complicated to the simple, from the cares of maturity to the carefree thoughts of childhood, from the material to the spiritual.

Tis Christmas! . . . time to count our many friends and recall the happy relationships we have had with them during the year . . . time to express our gratitude and to wish all our friends the choicest blessings the Yule season can bestow.

Byron Foley entered the Hermiston general hospital Monday night to receive medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Louderback announce the arrival of a baby boy, Ronald Bruce, weighing 8 lbs., 4 ounces. The young man was born Saturday at the Hermiston general hospital.

Eddy Isensee left Tuesday for Portland where he re-enlisted in the U. S. Navy. He has previously served a four year enlistment.

R. F. Dawson, who has been in the Veterans' hospital in Walla Walla since the latter part of August, is getting along nicely. It is hoped that he may get to come home Christmas.

John Behrman, who has been employed in the local jewelry shop for the past five months, left this week for Seattle, Wash., where he expected to enlist in the U. S. Navy.

Miss Virginia Robertson, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Roberta Johnson, Miss Marguerite Hanson, Miss Doris Burcher and Vivien Brown were Saturday afternoon and evening visitors in Pendleton and Walla Walla.

Little Paul Fritts, 4-yr.-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Fritts, who is suffering from pneumonia, is doing nicely at the Hermiston general hospital.

The afternoon bridge club met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Belt Wednesday afternoon. The affair was in the form of a dessert luncheon.

William Fair, who for the past summer has been employed at the local Safeway store, left Thursday for Tennessee. He expected to be inducted into the army in the near future. He is making the trip by hitch hiking.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Felthouse and Mrs. R. L. Woolley returned Sunday night from a week-end trip in Portland. Mrs. Woolley spent the time visiting relatives at Forest Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Felthouse attended to business matters.

A cablegram was received Wednesday morning by Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Follett that their son, who is stationed in Honolulu with the U. S. navy, is well and safe. Although the words were few it meant a great deal to anxious relatives and friends here.

Mrs. R. E. Koon was a gracious hostess Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Ralph Scott of Pendleton. The ladies of Hermiston called from 2:00 to 4:30 to meet Mrs. Scott. Her husband, Major Scott, is in charge of the ordnance department at the Umatilla depot.

Sergeant Ernest Moser from Camp Bowie Texas, came recently to spend a fourlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moser, who are employed at the ordnance depot. Sgt. Moser is connected with the Signal Corps.

Hermiston friends of Mr. and Mrs. Warren K. Lee will be interested to hear that the Lees are now living in San Diego, California, where Mr. Lee is connected with the navy. Mr. Lee was a government mechanical inspector here while employed at the Umatilla Ordnance depot. Their new address is 525 Kalmia Street, San Diego, California.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Logan was the scene of a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening when Miss Geraldine Kellner, bride-elect of Larry Scheerger of Tilden, Nebraska, was the honored guest. The Misses Evelyn Carlson, Mary Purdum, Pearl Harris, Berla Carey and Irene Kellner were joint hostesses. Mrs. Gertrude Sanders was high in chinese checkers, Miss Elisa Schmidt in bridge and Miss Marguerite Hammon in pinochle.

Merry Christmas

Among the most cherished gifts bestowed by the passing year is the friendship and pleasant relations that have existed between us. We hope for a continuance of this friendship during the year to come, and, in the spirit of the season, we cordially greet you and wish you the most Merry of Merry Christmases.

Chisholm Grain & Feed Co.

Eddie Lowell, who worked at the Umatilla Ordnance depot for several months and prior to that was employed in the First National Bank here, is well and safe, according to word received by his mother in Portland this week. Mr. Lowell is employed with a construction concern in Midway in the midst of war operations.

LOCAL COUPLE MARRIED FRIDAY

Miss Geraldine Kellner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kellner of Tigar, Ore., became the bride of Lawrence Scheerger, son of Fred Scheerger of Tilden, Neb. The ceremony took place in Walla Walla December 12 at the Lutheran church. Miss Evelyn Carlson was bridesmaid and Don Naylor acted as best man.

The bride wore a lovely gold crepe afternoon gown with brown accessories and corsage of gardenias. The bridesmaid wore a lovely delft blue afternoon dress and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The guests at the wedding included Misses Mary Purdum, Pearl Harris, Verla Carey and Irene Kellner, sister of the bride. All six of these girls have made their home with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Logan during the construction of the depot and are employees of J. A. Terteling and C.Q.M. Jon Arens, who also lives with the Logans, and George Johnson were the other guests. The young couple, after a short honeymoon, are making their home with the Logans for the present.

SOPHOMORES PLAN HOLIDAY FORMAL

The sophomore class of Hermiston union high school will sponsor the annual Christmas formal Monday evening, December 22, in the high school gymnasium. Miss Lavina May Lynch is in general charge of the affair.

The gym will be transformed into a winter garden with tall Christmas trees laden with icicles and other ornaments. The class extends a welcome to all faculty members, board members, alumni and friends of the school. Admission prices will be 25c and 75c, including tax.

LOCAL BULLDOGS LOSE TO HEPNER

The Hermiston basketball victory bubble burst with a resounding thud Saturday night when Heppner came to town to take back two long counts from the Bulldogs. The loss for the Bulldogs was the first of the season. The final score was 27 to 22 for Heppner.

Heppner solved the tight Hermiston zone defense by potting long howitzers from far out. Although the locals enjoyed a one point lead at half time, this was soon overcome by the sharp-shooting visitors.
