According to Mrs. F. B. Belt, local chairman for the Red Cross, the Hermiston second Red Cross roll call was very gratifying with about $350 collected. The entire amount was voluntary with little solicitation.

METHODIST CHURCH

Malcolm B. Ballinger, Pastor
Sunday, December 28—10 a. m., Sunday church school, Mrs. Alva Boulware, general superintendent.

11 A. M., morning worship, with sermon by the pastor, "Prayer in time of war". Prayer has been greatly discredited in the minds of many by its use during war. Men have felt the absurdity of praying on opposite sides of a battle. Why pray now? How pray? These and other vital questions will be discussed frankly in this sermon.

7 P. M., Methodist Youth Fellowship, Lois Casper, leader.

8 P. M., evening worship, with sermon by the pastor, "The Gospel of God and the Gospel of Man", a sermon about St. John the Evangelist. Members of the Masonic lodge will be special guests. Music by the young people.

Wed., Dec. 31, "New Year's Eve". Special candle-light consecration service for the Methodist Youth Fellowship in the Echo Methodist church. Adults are invited to attend also. Holy communion will be celebrated at midnight.

Survey Gives Soldier's "Rules" For Good Morale In Army Camps

HERE are the American soldier's own specifications for good army "morale":

1. Fair treatment.
2. Complete "freedom and variety" when on leave.
3. Decent, hospitable attitudes among local townspeople near camps, making him feel he's "as good as anyone else."
4. First class training and straight talk from his superiors on what the war is about, so he can feel he's getting something tangible out of his experience in the army.

These "rules" are based on findings made in a dozen training camps and all sorts of places outside by Alden Stevens, widely experienced sociologist and writer. His report appeared in Survey Graphic.

PENTECOSTAL TABERNACLE

Shelby E. Graves, Pastor
In these days of turmoil and men's hearts failing for fear, we can surely see scripture being fulfilled fast. We need to flee to the Rock for our salvation, while it is yet day for today is the day of salvation. A man knoweth not what a day may bring death. Take advantage of the wonderful privilege we have of freedom of worship. Bible school, 10 a. m., class for every age. Worship hour 11 a. m. 7 P. M. Young people's service. 7:45 P. M. evangelistic service. Thursday, 7:45 Bible study and prayer meeting. A welcome to all.

At this joyous season we wish to express our sincere feeling of good will and friendship to the many friends and customers whom it has been our privilege to serve during 1941.

You have been good to us in the past, and we want to say "Thanks for everything."

Happy New Year, and we'll be seeing you!

Happy New Year

We welcome the New Year because we know it marks the beginning of another chapter. The stage is set for another act.

Looking backward we see the things we might have done, but did not.

Looking forward we see the things we plan and resolve to do. May the sun shine brighter, the days grow longer, may new hope invigorate and cheer us. The Year of Grace One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-two is at hand, and we welcome its arrival.

We also welcome the New Year because we know it will bring many new opportunities to be of service to you, and to express through this service our sincere appreciation of your friendship and patronage. We wish you a Very Happy New Year!
