TOWNSEND CLUB NEWS

By Mrs. Joe Udey

A very important meeting was held at the Townsend pavilion December 23. The election of new officers was postponed until the next meeting which will be held January 6th, and all members are urged to be present.

To those interested, the following is a copy of a telegram sent to the President of the United States: WA1038 - 108NT Chicago, Ill.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Washington, D. C.

In this hour of our nation's trial, we are proud and happy to offer you the unanimous support of the membership in ten thousand Townsend clubs from coast to coast, for any civilian defense work. We also place at your disposal our weekly rotogravure newspaper, Townsend National Weekly, together with the service of our staff of organizers, writers, radio and platform speakers, all carefully trained in morale building and mass psychology. Hundreds of thousands of our readers and club members will undertake any task within their power, or cooperate with any established agency, public or private. We salute you, our commander in chief, and wait your command.

Signed, Dr. Frances E. Townsend.

CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST

C. Warner, Pastor Our sermon topic for Sunday morning will be "Jehovah's Command To Israel" as recorded in Exodus 14:15. For the evening worship service it will be "God's Power". This is a day of tremendous power.

Our Sunday School meets at 10:00 a. m., morning worship at 11:00 a. m. Christian Endeavor for all ages at 7:00 p. m., and the evening worship at 8:00.

The 7:00 p. m. service takes the place of the regular mid-week service. A basket dinner will be served in the church basement following the Sunday morning service at which time a committee consisting of the Sunday School officers and teachers, and officers of all departments of the church will make final plans for the four year advance educational program within the church.

HERMISTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Grayden D. Lorce, Pastor Our text for Sunday morning will be "As We Forgive Our Debtors". In times such as these we are likely to be carried away with the emotion called hatred. Even though we are at war we should not develop hatred even for those who are our enemies.

Each one can do his part for his country and the cause of freedom without learning to hate any nation or nations. Our democracy must be defended. But let us not lower ourselves to the level of barbarians by retaliating with the same treacherous tactics used by them. As we take inventory of the past year we find much in ourselves that needs to be forgiven.

Start the New Year right by attending church. All services at the usual hours.

PENTECOSTAL TABERNACLE

Shelby E. Graves, Pastor We are now beginning a new year. Let's not just say that we are going to turn over a new leaf, but let's do something about it.

Sunday at 10:00 a. m., Bible school. A class for every age. You will feel at home.

11:00 a. m., Worship hour. Comfort, exhortation and edification.

7:00 p. m., Young people's meeting.

7:45 p. m., Evangelistic service. Thursday, 7:45 p. m., A real Bible study and prayer meeting.

METHODIST CHURCH

Malcolm B. Ballinger, Pastor Sunday, January 4—10 a. m., Sunday church school. 11 A. M., Holy communion, with sermon by the pastor, "Leading a New Life". What is the relationship between the Lord's Supper, New Year's resolutions, and a Christian's part in bringing about peace instead of war in this world? What can the people of Hermiston do now to win the peace that ought to follow the present war? These and other vital related questions will be discussed frankly.

7. P. M., Methodist Youth fellowship. 8 P. M., Evening worship, with sermon by the pastor, "Can Human Beings Be Made Over?" Nicodemus asked Jesus, "How can a man be born when he is old?" What was Jesus' answer? What is the answer today? Wednesday, Woman's Society of Christian Service holds an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. M. L. Watson. Choir rehearsal, 7:30 p. m. at the church.

RAY AYERS MARRIED SUNDAY AT HEPPNER

Weddings bells rang Sunday for Miss Maxine Pettyjohn of Heppner and Ray Ayers of Butter Creek. They were married at a quiet wedding at one o'clock at the bride's home in Heppner. The ceremony was read by Rev. Martin Clark of the Heppner Christian church, and only immediate members of the families attended.

After the ceremony a big turkey dinner was served by Mrs. Pettyjohn.

The couple plan to make their home in Pendleton.

WILLIAMS SPEAKS ON STATE AFFAIRS

(Continued from page 1) So does Ralph Terrill of Medford, also Judge A. S. Higgs, Ernest Stucke and Clarence Phillips, all of John Day. H. D. Barclay of Sisters chats with C. P. Edwards and Georgia Perry of Condon. John Farris of La Grande and Guy Fuller of Baker look things over. So does Wallace Hudspeth of McEwen. Felix Johnson of Long Creek, the big livestock man, looks over the situation with Lewis Beck of Pendleton. Giles French of Moro, who owns the only newspaper in Sherman county, chats with Rodney Keating, the big oil man of Portland, and Howard Turner, banker of Madras. Joe Lake, secretary of the electrical workers' union, books applicants for jobs in the shipyards. Eugene Allen, editor of the Labor Press, looks on soldiers and sailors by the hundreds with their folks and friends saying goodbye. And is the weather cold and snappy. It is around here. Everyone has a brisk walk. And don't forget those good resolutions you made for the New Year. . . or did you?
