ONE DELIVERY DAILY — 10:30 A. M.

COLD SNAP HITS HERE WITH GUSTO

The thermometer took quite a nose dive the past week, hitting a low of 13 above last Saturday. According to all indications, however, Wednesday night will be even colder. The Herald was printed one day earlier than usual and does not have the Wednesday night reading. Approximately two inches of snow was on the ground Wednesday morning.

The report for the past week, according to Chas. Taylor, recorder, is as follows:

Date	Max.	Min.
December 25	38	26
December 26	35	20
December 27	33	13
December 28	33	28
December 29	33	29
December 30	33	27

POULTRY MEETINGS SET FOR JANUARY 7

Noel Bennion, Extension Poultry Specialist, Oregon State College, will be here to assist Assistant County Agent Gene Lear in holding two poultry meetings on January 7th. The first meeting will be at the Columbia park hall at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday, January 7, and the second meeting will be at the Stanfield Grange hall at 7:30 p. m. of the same day. The purpose of these meetings will be to discuss poultry feeding and management practices in the light of the "Food for Freedom" program, and also to discuss with poultry producers economical feed rations.

Mr. Bennion, or some other member of the poultry department at the college, is holding meetings such as these in practically all poultry producing areas in the state during the next two months.

CATTLE SHIPMENT OF INTEREST HERE

W. C. Kik, farmer residing north of Hermiston, broke into the limelight this week by shipping in 205 head of long yearling Herefords from Los Banos, California. Due to U. S. troop activities, it took a full week to make the shipment here, necessitating four stops for feed and water.

Mr. Kik plans to feed the stock for a month or so and then dispose of it. Dehorning operations began Wednesday morning in charge of D. D. Follett. The entire herd makes quite a pleasant sight.

LOCAL CHURCHES TO COMMEMORATE DAY OF PRAYER

The Hermiston ministerial association will sponsor a joint evening of prayer Thursday evening, January 1, in accordance with a proclamation by the President of the United States. The service will be held in the Baptist church beginning at 8:00 p. m. No definite program has been lined up for the evening although prayers for the President, the nation and other worthy causes will be offered.

The following is the proclamation of President Roosevelt:

The year 1941 has brought upon our nation a war of aggression by powers dominated by arrogant rulers whose selfish purpose is to destroy free institutions. They would thereby take from the freedom-loving peoples of the earth hard-won liberties gained over many centuries.

The new year of 1942 calls for the courage and the resolution of old and young to help win a world struggle in order that we may preserve all we hold dear.

We are confident in our devotion to country, in our love of freedom, in our inheritance of courage. But our strength, as the strength of all men everywhere, is of greater avail as God upholds us.

Therefore, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, president of the United States of America, do hereby appoint the first day of the year 1942 as a day of prayer, of asking forgiveness for our shortcomings of the past, of consecration to the tasks of the present, and of asking God's help in days to come.

We need his guidance that this people may be humble in spirit, strong in the conviction of the right, steadfast to endure sacrifices and brave to achieve a victory of liberty and peace.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this twenty-second day of December in the year of our Lord nine-hundred and forty-one, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-sixth.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

Biddy Goes to Work Early

America will need millions of eggs this winter, as part of the "defense food" production. Kathryn Hines, pretty 4-R club girl, shows Biddy that soldier hours will be expected. Many poultry producers follow this practice of turning on electric lights in laying houses early in the morning during winter months. The practice compensates for the fewer hours of daylight and gives hens a full day of eating and laying.

FEDERAL CONTROL OF EMPLOYMENT OFFICE EXPLAINED

The Hermiston office of the Oregon State Employment Service is being transferred from State to Federal control, effective January 1, 1942, and will hereafter be operated as an office of the United States Employment Service, L. C. Stoll, United States Employment Service Director of Oregon, announced today.

Mr. Stoll said that the 24 offices of the State Department are being made Federal offices this week, following President Roosevelt's request to the governors of the states on December 19, 1941, asking that arrangements be made to transfer the personnel and the necessary equipment to the federal government in a nation-wide reorganization of the Employment Service to meet increasing labor demands of the war industries.

All employees of the State Unemployment Compensation Commission, who are engaged in employment service functions, will become federal employees at their present rating and salary under the State Merit System.

The Hermiston office will remain in its present location, under the management of James M. Clinton, but will operate under the name of the United States Employment Service.

Claims for unemployment insurance, under the state law, will continue to be taken at the Hermiston office by federal employees, and transmitted to the state agency for the usual determination as to eligibility.

WORKERS URGED TO APPLY FOR EXAMS

The United States civil service commission is announcing a change in the wage scale to be paid classified laborers at the Umatilla ordnance depot. A raise from $4.56 to $5.04 a day will be paid civil service employees. Examinations for work will be held soon with information available at Manager, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service District, 326 Post Office Building, Seattle, Wash.

Applicants must have reached their 18th birthday but must not have passed their 55th birthday at the time of filing applications. The age limits do not apply to persons granted military preference because of military or naval service, except that such applicants must not have reached the retirement age.

How the American Country Boy Benefits from Army Training

The American country boy—that stalwart fellow from the farms and the towns and smaller cities—has contributed not only his brawn to Uncle Sam's armies, but exemplifies patriotism, initiative, and intelligent discipline as well.

Such is the gist of authoritative commentary on the rank and file of the army in every instance where citizen soldiers have been called to the nation's defense. Today the parents of the young men lately called into service are asking what the army in turn does for the country boy. Here is the answer:

"He gains a broadening experience in adventure, friendship, and learning which only service in a common cause can give."

The quotation is from an overseas veteran of the World War who served in a hard hitting outfit composed largely of youths classed generally as country boys. Amplifying his statement, he stressed the young soldier's experience in adventure, friendship, and learning.

Boyhood adventures in rambles with his dog, a plunge in the "old swimmin' hole" and explorations in the woods pave the way for his new duties in camp and in the field. Our Army affords new scenes and still more heartening adventures. He gains a strong physique, good health, and a clean mind. He comes home equipped for his life work with renewed energy and a brighter outlook upon the world.

In friendship he broadens his horizon, meets thousands of young men like himself from all parts of the Union, and forms enduring comradeships. Knowing his fellow Americans better he is himself a better American.

The average country boy enters the Army with an inquiring mind and a fund of practical experience, declares the veteran of 1918. He is a good student. He has learned to work with his hands as well as his brains. He is quick to grasp the exceptional opportunities which modern military service provides.

When he returns to the farm he finds that his skill in handling a "jeep," a truck, or a tank for Uncle Sam has fitted him expertly to care for agricultural machinery. He has learned the economy of transportation. He has been observing of the practice of farmers in other sections of the country. He sees where improvements may be made. He knows more of conservation.

Active service in our Army has been America's greatest training school for the professions, in science, and in business. In every period in the nation's history the leaders in civil life have been largely those who in their youth answered their country's call to defense, and first of these has been the country boy.

DE MOSS RELATIVE PASSES AWAY

According to a telegram received Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeMoss of the Columbia district, Mrs. Lizzie DeMoss Davis passed away Tuesday. Mrs. Davis was well known by old timers and has received considerable recognition as the last of the original lyric bards.

Funeral services will be held Friday.

LOCALS

Home for Christmas vacation from college are: Tom Fraser, Gale Felthouse, Bob Jackson, Russell Piersol, Nina Rae McCulley, Cecil and Glenn Warner and Bill Belt, from the University of Oregon; and Jim Jackson, Kenneth Bensel, Henry Sommerer, Gilbert Dyer from Oregon State College.

A. W. Behrman, Hermiston jeweler, left by train Wednesday evening for California and other southern points. He expects to spend about a week recuperating from the recent "boom" activities.

NEW CLAIMS FOR UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE TAKEN

Salem—New claims for unemployment insurance for the 1942 benefit year will be taken in 23 state employment offices beginning Monday, December 22, Administrator Silas Gaiser announced today.

To be eligible for benefits, workers must serve two waiting weeks after having earned $200 in covered employment during the base year that ended September 30, 1941.

First benefits for the new year may be drawn for the week ending January 10, 1942, if unemployment continues uninterrupted into the new benefit year. Those drawing 1941 benefits during the week ending January 3, 1942, may start drawing 1942 benefits without serving waiting weeks if they also are out of work during the first week of the new benefit year and are otherwise eligible.

A year ago 27,676 claims were taken before February 1. Up to December 6, the commission received 58,251 claims, of which 49,450 were found valid. Of these 12,382 claim-
