By Mrs. Bob Woodward

The North Columbia Telephone company held its annual election of officers last Thursday evening at a meeting at the Charles Keller home. The organization for the coming year will be managed by the women, as they carried the election. Mrs. Duff Knight was elected president, Mrs. Mabel Weeks, vice president, Mrs. H. G. McCulley, secretary, Mrs. John Jendrzejewski and Mrs. B. E. Getchell directors. After more or less line trouble the past year, the women start out with the slogan, "Keep'em ringing".

Duane Lathrop returned from another trip to The Dalles the first of the week where Mrs. Lathrop is still in a critical condition. The doctors do not expect her to live through the week, as she has been failing rapidly the last few days.

Word comes from Mrs. August Lindner in Portland that her health does not improve much and it is not known when she will be able to return home.

Virgil Wilkes spent several days here this week on business from The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrnie Caldwell are parents of a daughter born Saturday, January 24, at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. She has been named Myrna Mae.

A large group of friends gathered at the Christley home last Saturday evening at a charivari for Mr. and Mrs. Dell Christley.

Carl Hammer left Wednesday of last week for California to take a new position with the Terteling Construction company. Mrs. Hammer and children plan to join him in the near future.

Miss Ruth Gifford was a house guest of Mrs. Dell Christley Monday night.

Ray Woodward, who has made his home at Enterprise the past several years, was in Hermiston Saturday en route to Portland to take the final examination for navy enlistment. Word has been received that he was accepted and will probably be stationed in California.

Myrnie Caldwell and Mrs. Bob Woodward spent Tuesday evening in Pendleton where they visited Mrs. Caldwell at St. Anthony's.

L. W. Dixon who is in Portland recovering from a recent operation was struck by a car last Saturday evening as he was leaving his hotel, but sustained no apparent injuries, although badly shaken. Mr. Dixon is expected home next week.

Mrs. L. W. Dixon is now visiting in Pocatello and Twin Falls, Idaho, en route home from Colorado where she has visited since the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe and children of Stanfield spent Sunday at the Bob Woodward home.

Bert Parsons visited with his daughters in The Dalles during last week end. Parsons reports that his son Ed Parsons, who for several months has been in training in Chicago for ground work with the aeronautical division of the army has recently been transferred to the Aleutian Islands off Alaska.

Mrs. A. H. Cable and Mrs. H. M. Sommer were to go to Pendleton Thursday as representatives of the local Home Extension unit to attend the district leaders meeting on "Home Repairs".

Along the Diagonal: Mrs. E. Dixon being the "perfect" model at the H. E. U. meeting . . . getting acquainted with our neighbors . . . family comments on the ladies' new "weight control" menus.
