Mrs. Frank Pierson and Pfc. Chas. Pierson left Tuesday to spend several days visiting relatives in Portland.

Do you wish a pleasant job at a soda fountain? Apply at the Moore and Ripley Drug store in Hermiston.

Houseguests at the O. L. Townsend home this week were his nephews, Almie and Lynn Garrison, who are with the North American transportation company and were en route on a business trip.

J. W. McMullen left by train last Thursday for Altoona, Penn., where he will spend from a month to six weeks visiting his aged mother, Mrs. Amanda McMullen. Mr. McMullen hasn't visited in Altoona for about 35 years.

H. B. Parrent of Hermiston has received word that he is the grandfather of a six pound, 13 ounce baby girl born March 16 to his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Parrent of Kellogg, Idaho.

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Belt have received word from their son, Bill, that he is now stationed with "Terry" Allen's division near Cologne. He writes that the going is quite rugged, but occasionally they enjoy a good night's sleep in a recently captured village. He is still receiving the Hermiston Herald quite regularly in spite of the fact that they are moving "towards Berlin" quite rapidly.

Miss Grace Pierson, nurse at the Hermiston General hospital, left Wednesday for Caldwell, Idaho, to visit her parents. She is taking a month's leave.

Miss Ina L. Moore, Mrs. Emma K. Moore, Mrs. Lucy Steinwalt and Mrs. Edna Kornfeld returned Tuesday night from a business trip to Moscow, Idaho.

Mrs. Erma Atkinson of Tacoma arrived Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Stout of Boardman who are in the Hermiston General hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Stout were injured in an auto accident several weeks ago.

The Women's Council of the Central Church of Christ entertained their husbands and families last Friday evening at a pot luck dinner in the church basement. A grand fellowship was enjoyed around the tables after which everyone assembled upstairs where a regular business meeting and devotion was held. Miss Ina Moore gave a very interesting talk on her experiences in the foreign missions. A play, "Go Ye Thereof and Teach" written by Mrs. Bernard Kendall, was well received. Mrs. Cecil Warner, district secretary of Oregon Missionary Society, will speak at the Women's Council Thursday, March 22, at the Christian Church parsonage.

Mr. Marvin Townsend and two sons of Fruitland, Idaho, left Wednesday for their home following a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Townsend.

Guy Shaw, manager of the Inland Cooperative, is spending this week in Portland on business.

Mrs. Willard Hutsell of La Grande visited last week in Hermiston with Mrs. Flora Moyer. Also visitors here were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Snodgrass of Boise, Idaho.

J. A. Thorpe, with the Seabees for the past two years, has been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thorpe. He left again this week for San Francisco to report for duty.

Little one-year-old Joanna Shockman was taken to the Hermiston General hospital Tuesday where she was under observation. Tuesday afternoon she was taken to St. Anthony's in Pendleton.

Mrs. Sam P. Neufeldt of Salem arrived Wednesday to spend several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Quiring.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, March 28, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Pfc. Chas. "Chuck" Pierson of Fort Bliss, Texas, arrived last week to spend a 19 day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson. "Chuck" has to report to Fort Ord, Calif., Monday.

Miss Grace Pierson, nurse at the Hermiston General hospital, left Wednesday for Caldwell, Idaho, to visit her parents. She is taking a month's leave.
