

OASIS THEATRE

HERMISTON, OREGON

Friday and Saturday
March 30 - 31

with SYDNEY GREENSTREET and PETER LORE
Color Cartoon—Russia Rhapsody

Sunday and Monday
April 1 - 2
Double Feature

News Reel

Tues. - Wed. - Thurs.
April 3 - 4 - 5

Short Musical
Seeing Nellie Home and How to Play Football

LOCALS

Mrs. Josephine Mack returned to her home Monday after spending two weeks in the Hermiston General hospital.

Mrs. William McCall returned to her home Sunday after two days treatment at the Hermiston General hospital.

Miss Jinky Wilson of St. Paul's school in Walla Walla arrived home Friday to spend the Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. Jean Wilson. Jinky will be home till April 3.

Mrs. Eudora K. McBee of Moscow, Idaho, entered the Hermiston General hospital Tuesday night of last week. Mrs. Eulene Shultz who accompanied her mother here, returned to her home in Moscow Thursday of last week.

Lt. Clarence Terry of Camp Walters, Texas, recently spent a few days of his furlough at the Terry home on Butter Creek with his father, John Terry, and his brother, Durand Terry and family. Lt. Terry spent 29 months on duty overseas and has seen much active service, especially in New Georgia campaign, etc., and came through without a serious injury.

Mrs. Jim Omohundro has received a letter from her son, Leo Maynard Neal, Hospital App., U. S. Marines, who was reported injured March 15 on Iwo Jima, that he is now back at work and feeling much better. A bullet grazed his head during action, causing him to be hospitalized.

Baby Audry Stewart of Umatilla returned to her home Tuesday after receiving treatment at the Hermiston General hospital for two days.

James Todd left Monday night for Portland, returning Wednesday. Mrs. Lillian Schinderling assisted on the mail route during his absence.

Mrs. William Purvis and baby son of Pendleton are spending this week visiting her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Connor.

Mrs. Nellie Tucker received a telegram Wednesday afternoon that her brother, A. R. Hulbert, 75, is seriously ill. She left the same night for Townsend, Mont., near Butte, to be with him.

Miss Rebecca Pierson and Guy Shaw of the Inland Cooperative were business visitors in Walla Walla Tuesday. Mr. Shaw, manager, returned from Portland last Friday following a week's stay there on business matters.

William Sisson and Mrs. Josephine Berglin were married Monday at Pasco. Mr. and Mrs. Sisson are making their home in one of the Kingsbury Apartments. Mrs. Sisson is the cook at the Hermiston General hospital.

R. E. Alstott Sr. was the honored guest Sunday afternoon at a birthday party given in his honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Alstott Jr. The honored guest was celebrating his 70th birthday on that day. Present for the occasion were eight of the 11 Alstott children, and a total of 24 grandchildren. Mr. Alstott is proud of the fact that he is grandfather of 33 grandchildren and was sorry that they could not all be present for his birthday party.

First Lt. Clement N. Stockard of Hermiston is now stationed at the 23rd General Hospital in France, according to latest information received here. This hospital serves primarily troops in the Seventh Army, who in the late fall and early winter were fighting in the Vosges Mountains area under very wet and extremely cold conditions. According to a report from the hospital, trench foot cases greatly outnumber all other types of illness.

Mrs. Victoria Churchman entered the Hermiston General hospital Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd of Bend arrived Friday and spent until Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Todd.

Little 2-year-old Dennis Keith, who makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Borthwick, was knocked down by a bull Wednesday of last week and he suffered a broken arm. It was necessary to put the arm in a cast. He is a patient at the Hermiston General hospital.

James McNeal of Boise, Idaho, was a week end visitor in Hermiston at the home of his brother, Roy McNeal. The latter is the new manager for the Hermiston Irrigation district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kennedy of Helmer, Idaho, stopped Saturday night to visit with his sisters, Mrs. Emma K. Moore and Mrs. Eudora K. McBee, who are both in the Hermiston General hospital.

Mrs. Barbara Emert and Miss Thelma Holmquist left Saturday to spend until Wednesday visiting relatives at Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. James Todd were host at a family dinner Saturday night with covers placed for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd of Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Todd, Miss Barbara Todd, Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Holt of Pendleton, Miss Peggy Todd and Mr. and Mrs. James Todd.

I. L. Stout was taken to Walla Walla Wednesday for surgery on his broken knee which he received in an accident at Boardman.

Mrs. Barbara Stephens of Weiser, Idaho, arrived Monday to spend until after Easter with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Felthouse.

Clarence Kennison Jr. arrived Monday to possibly spend two weeks with his wife and his parents here.

Ellis Coxen, Electrician's Mate, 1st class, recently spent a 10-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coxen. Ellis was en route to Bremerton, Wash., to be assigned to a school for further instruction.

Sgt. Ernest J. Drumm, Chief of Section, and son of Mrs. Lottie Drumm of Hermiston, is a member of the 347th Field Artillery Battalion, which recently helped in the capture of heavily-fortified Livergnano on the Fifth Army front, a keystone in German's defense of the Po Valley in Italy.

Pvt. Norman W. Cavanaugh, son of Elmer D. Cavanaugh of Hermiston, has arrived in the Philippines and has been assigned to the Veteran 32nd Infantry division in the Philippines. He entered the army in June, 1944, with basic training at Camp Wolters, Texas. He left the United States in January, 1945 for overseas duty with the famed Red Arrow division somewhere on Luzon Island in that area.

Mrs. W. J. Kennings, who accompanied Mrs. R. B. Wilcox to Portland about two weeks ago, returned home Saturday night after visiting her three daughters, Mrs. Claud Wilcox of Portland, Mrs. Clarence Robinett of Gales Creek and Mrs. Dan Richards of Vernonia.

Miss Phyllis Sires will leave Sunday for O. S. C. after spending ten days Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sires of Stanfield, and friends in Hermiston.

Roy White, secretary of the Oregon State Council of Carpenters, returned Thursday morning from a business trip over the mountains which took him to Elgin and back to La Grande for different meetings. Mr. White reports considerable snow at Meacham and snow falling in La Grande Wednesday evening.

S/Sgt. Claude L. Stamper Jr., 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stamper of Hermiston, is expected home soon according to information received from Miami, Fla. He has served 12 months in the China-Burma-India theater as an engineer-gunner on a B-24 and has flown on 30 combat missions, totaling 270 hours. He has been awarded the Air Medal and a cluster.

LOCAL SENIOR IS NURSE CADET

Joy Reed, popular high school senior, this week enlisted with the Nurse Cadet corps and will leave this week end for La Grande to enter preliminary training. Miss Reed is a daughter of Mrs. Carrie Reed of Hermiston.

Miss Reed is president of the Girls' League in high school and has been especially active in extra-curricular activities. If arrangements can be completed, Miss Reed will return to Hermiston for graduation exercises.

Echo Community Methodist Church

Rev. Earl B. Cotton, Pastor
Sunday, April 1—10:00 A. M.
Easter Program by the Sunday School. B. Middleton, superintendent.

11:00 A. M., Easter music and sermon by the pastor.

At noon, community basket dinner.

7:30 P. M., Evening service. You are invited to these services.

"And the angel said
... I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here:
for He is risen, as He said. Come see the place where the Lord lay."
—Matthew 28:5, 60

HERMISTON
BAPTIST CHURCH
H. V. McGee, Pastor

See
L. L. BOYNTON
for that next
CARPENTRY JOB
— Cabinet Work —
Phone 2452

- Rogers, Fancy Sweet PEAS ..... 2 No. 2 cans .29
- Seaport, All Green ASPARAGUS ..... No. 2 cans .31
Cut Spears
- Jewel SHORTENING ..... 3 lb. pkg. .59
- Easter Egg COLORS ..... per pkg. 5c & .10
- Cinch, Golden or Spice CAKE MIX ..... large pkg. .28
Makes two 8-inch layers
- C & H Pure Cane SUGAR ..... 10 lb. bag .65
- Tang SALAD DRESSING ..... qt. jar .39
- Hills Bros. COFFEE ..... 1 lb. jar .32

- Six Delicious Flavors JEL-SERT ..... 6 pkgs. for .35
- 27-oz. package CREAM of WHEAT ..... each .23
- Nature's Nut Brown Food ROMAN MEAL ..... 30-oz. pkg. .27
- Instant Cooking ZOOM ..... 1 1/4 lb. pkg. .21
Whole Wheat Cereal
- Nabisco 100% BRAN ..... 1 lb. pkgs., 2 for .35
Double Milled, ready to eat
- Guittard Sweet Ground CHOCOLATE ..... 1-lb. can .25
- Albers FLAPJACK ..... 40 oz. pkg. .24
- Blue KARO SYRUP ..... 1 1/2 lbs. .16
- McDonald ORANGE JUICE ..... 46-oz. can .48
- Standby Orange and GRAPEFRUIT JUICE ..... 46 oz. .45

Hermiston Food Store
Phone 3781
HERMISTON, OREGON

Your Certified Independent Grocer

Weyenbergs
IT'S TOUGH TO ENJOY 'EM ONLY WHEN OFF DUTY

Countless men in uniform yearn for fuller enjoyment—of Weyenbergs Shoes. They know their distinctive appearance and workmanship—the way they're crafted to fit comfortably. You can depend on them to give extra months of satisfactory service. Come in today for your pair.

SAYLOR'S

BOARDMAN NEWS

By Frances Skoubo

Mr. and Mrs. George Linn, Edward McClellan and Wayne Conyers motored to La Grande Saturday to attend a speech conference there, in which Edward participated. Ed's topic was The American Bill of Rights. He received second place and a girl from La Grande received first.

The annual school carnival was held in the gym Friday evening. Booths of fortune telling, telegrams, niger throw, beauty salon, kangaroo court, novelty stand, fish pond, dart throw, bingo and a chance stand for a bride, all to raise money for the primary grades, and dancing was the recreation for the evening. Lunch was served the entire evening by Mrs. Black's home economics girls. The king and queen this year were Melvin Carlson and Reba Falconer. Prince and princess were Lynn Gillespie and Grace Miller. A door prize of a coffee table was won by Memie Harwood and Shirley Peck won the bride doll. The drawing was done by Norma Shannon.

Mrs. John Younger of Durkee is spending a few days visiting Mrs. Grace Forbes and family.

Mrs. Allan Billings and Marlene, Mrs. John Partlow and Mrs. Dewey West and son Larry were in The Dalles on business Saturday.

Mrs. Omer Johnson and daughter Marsha of Los Angeles, Cal., are spending several days with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Linn, and father, W. D. Fonda of St. Ed, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Partlow motored to Pendleton on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Allen of Portland spent several days with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Baker and family and friend here on the project.

Audree Wilson spent the week end visiting in The Dalles.

Mrs. Flossie Coats spent the week end with her husband, Claude Coats, who is employed with the Telewelding Welding Company working in and around Pendleton.

Ernabel Peck, who attends St. Joseph's Academy in Pendleton, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peck.

Elizabeth Traybough returned from Portland with her infant son Morris who was confined in Doernbecher hospital there.

Ray Brown and Leo Root are constructing concrete bridges and flood gates in the city irrigation ditches.

The Russell Miller family is preparing to move to the farm, the former Falconer farm along the highway east of Tom's Camp, while the Hamiltons are moving back to their farm along the main canal. Henry Phelps has bought the former King place where Russell Miller is vacating.

Geraldine Grawnquest and infant son Keith are spending several days with friends and relatives in Portland.

Chas. Anderegg, Henry Zivney, W. Becholdt and Ingvard Skoubo have been making improvements on the irrigation ditch along the highway.

Robert Wilson cleared a track for the track boys to practice on south of the baseball diamond on the school grounds Thursday.

Earl Cramer and Mr. and Mrs. Basel Cramer are visiting friends and relatives here in Boardman this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs spent Sunday with friends in Pendleton.

Mrs. A. E. McFarland went to Pasco to attend a hearing on the Umatilla Rapids dam, conducted by army engineers, Wednesday.

The Senior Frolic will be held in the school gym April 7th this year. Everyone is welcome, formal or informal. Music will be furnished by the Ione Carcinal orchestra from 8 to 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs, Effie Bullock and Minnie McFarland motored to Heppner Friday where Mrs. McFarland attended a county hospital committee meeting.

COME TO CHURCH SUNDAY

EASTER SUNDAY

"The Victory of Resurrection"

Sunday - 8:00 P. M.
Cantata—
"Christ Victorious"

Hermiston Methodist Church
W. A. MacARTHUR, Pastor

IMPORTANT CHANGES in Bus Schedules!

Phone 2271
for New Arrival and Departure Times

Hermiston Drug Co.
Phone 2271

Effective April 1, Overland Greyhound Lines will furnish added bus service. In addition, all present arrivals and departures will be changed. Phone your Overland Greyhound agent now to familiarize yourself with these new schedules.

OVERLAND GREYHOUND LINES

Special by UNION PACIFIC STAGES, INC.