

Everybody Lends Hand to Defense of Australia

There is no city in Australia that can quietly sit back with the assurance that it will not be bombed by Japs. In the picture at the left, Melbourne city employees are doing their Australia-day task, erecting an ARP sandbag barricade outside of their working premises. Right: Members of the anti-aircraft battery man a height and range-finder at an action station in Darwin, Australia. The men work stripped to their waists.

STANFIELD NEWS

By Mrs. Rose Hedrick

Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church at Stanfield Wednesday, April 1, for Mrs. Travis McCullough, with Rev. B. F. Mitchell giving the sermon. Garth Clark and Homer Hedrick sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Rock of Ages" with Neva Hedrick playing. Pallbearers were Frank Sloan, Ed Ferris, Harry Wessell, Marion Martin, Martin Refvem and Garth Clark. Burial was at Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stuart and son Roland have purchased a small tract of land near Umapine and have moved there.

The Stanfield Woman's Study club met at the home of Mrs. Everett Taylor on March 26. Chief business was the election of officers. Mrs. Edna Fisk was elected president; Mrs. William Reeves, vice president; Mrs. Irene Hogg, secretary, and Mrs. Hada Shelton, treasurer. Plans were also discussed for "Guest Day" on April 9 with a special committee in charge. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dennis and sons spent a few days near Spokane on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Smith were hosts for a turkey dinner at their home last Sunday. Their guests were

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith of Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Isackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhea and Carlene.

Mrs. Hada Shelton entertained the Harmony club at her home Tuesday.

Gilbert Smith, fire chief of Stanfield, and others saved the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rueber from any great damage when a fire smoldering among the leaves on the roof burst through the roof.

The Stanfield library is a busy place, having registered this year 47 new readers. The circulation of books and magazines has reached 2480 this quarter which is 151 more than in the first four months last year, according to our librarian's report which is just finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Krause gave a reception at their home Sunday honoring their daughter Grace who was married on March 27 to Marion Gerton at Lewiston, Idaho. He is employed at the Pendleton Field, and Grace will finish her senior year here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hayter have purchased a small home in the east end of town.

Rev. B. F. Mitchell announces that children may be christened and members received into the church at the Easter service at 11:00 a. m. April 5. Mrs. Max Pigar will present a chorus of 30 girls in the Easter cantata "Eternal Life". The Easter subject for the young folks will be at 7:00 p. m.

The Congregational supper on Monday night was much enjoyed. Church and Sunday School and the Aid gave good reports. Nathan Bard was elected to the board of trustees, and the other members were reelected. Music was furnished by Mrs. Pigar, Miss Taylor, Miss Sires and Billy Penney.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sullivan visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, parents of Mrs. Sullivan, last week.

The seniors chose April 1st for "sneak day" and as usual most of the juniors took off too, but where?

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Herrick returned to Portland Monday after a few days visit at the Charles Herrick home, and at Mrs. Mary Nudo home, their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pennington have moved from the trailer camp to a small house near the old grade school.

FARM BUREAU IS ACTIVE GROUP

At the clean up day recently, 15 men were present to aid with the work. Dell Christley plowed a ditch with his tractor and the men followed, laying the water pipe. A sink was installed in the kitchen and a faucet placed outside. The water will be a big help in preparing meals in the club room. Following the work, the ladies served a lunch.

Two comforters were completed and other sewing accomplished by the ladies during the day.

The Farm Bureau Federation entertained with a dinner on Tuesday, March 24, when more than a 100 guests were present. The auxiliary ladies served the dinner.

The ladies wish to thank all those that helped with the work at the park and also the ladies who aided in preparing the dinner.

The next meeting will be March 3. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Grace Foster, Mrs. Minnie Ott and Mrs. Essie Turnblad. Visitors are always welcome.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

Sealed bids will be received by the City Recorder at Hermiston, Oregon, until 7:30 P. M. April 6th, 1942, for the construction of a sewer system for the City of Hermiston, and will then and there be opened and publicly read aloud. Bids received after the time fixed for opening will not be considered.

Plans, specifications and form of contract documents may be examined at the City Recorder's office and at the Consulting Engineer's office and a set of said plans, specifications, and forms, may be obtained at the office of R. H. Corey, Consulting Engineer, 999 Bedell Bldg., Portland, Oregon, upon a deposit of $10.00.

The full amount of deposit for one set of documents will be returned to each actual bidder within a reasonable time after receipt of bids. Other deposits will be refunded with deduction not exceeding the actual cost of reproduction of the drawings, upon the return of all documents in good condition within 30 days after the date of opening bids.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check, cashier's check or bid bond (with authorized surety company as surety) made payable to the owner in amount not less than 5% of the amount of bid.

The City of Hermiston reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive informalities.

No bidder may withdraw his bid after the hour set for opening thereof, or before award of contract, unless said award is delayed for a period exceeding 30 days.
