BOARDMAN NEWS

By Elaine Fisher

Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Gladys Ford were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Chichester and brother Elmer Chichester of Huntsville. Miss Helen Guse of Walla Walla and cousin Mrs. Simmonton of Gooding, Ida.

A chicken supper sponsored by the home economics club was held at the grange hall Saturday. It was followed by a program and the regular grange meeting.

The seniors left on their annual sneak Thursday morning. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Joe Enzler. They drove to Portland where they took in the sights, returning Saturday.

Adolph Skoubo has started to ship asparagus and will ship for about two months.

Plans are being made to continue the mattress making project, which is to begin the first part of May. There are about 63 mattresses to be made here.

The funeral of Mike Flickenger was held from the Community church Saturday afternoon. He is survived by one brother in the East. He was a resident of this community for many years, having served as telegraph operator at both Coyote and Messner. Later he took up farming. He was laid to rest in the Boardman cemetery by the side of his wife who preceded him in death last June.

The high school senior frolic by which the juniors honor the seniors each year is to be held in the gym Friday evening. The juniors have been working hard to complete preparations. The music is to be furnished by a Pendleton orchestra.

UMATILLA NEWS

By Mrs. Glenn Ostrom

Mrs. Harold Regele and son Marvin have returned to their home here after spending the past month in Salem and Estacada where Mrs. Regele was receiving medical attention. Mr. Regele drove down after them.

First aid classes started Friday evening with an instructor from Pendleton coming down twice a week, Monday and Friday nights. There are about 40 members.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Gordian spent a couple of days in Portland where they took her son and wife, who went on to California where he is stationed with the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. James Byrnes and daughter Joan and Mrs. Glenn Ostrom and son Gary Dean, and their granddaughters Ilene and Arlene Harryman spent Saturday in Walla Walla shopping, and at Touchet visiting Mr. Byrnes' mother and family.

Mrs. David Early and daughter of Baker are here visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hiatt and family.

Peter D. Farley spent Saturday afternoon in Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van Nice and family have moved from the Young residence east of town to the John Wurster farm west of town which they have rented.

Rev. and Mrs. J. K. Walpole and family of Boardman spent Sunday afternoon here visiting friends.

Jim Crane of Huntington visited Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sawyer and daughter Shirley, and Mrs. Pat Patee and Francis and Rieth spent Monday in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McNabb spent Tuesday in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hull spent Sunday afternoon visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Myers in Kennewick.

TOWNSEND CLUB NEWS

By Mrs. Joe Udey

The meeting was held at the pavilion last Tuesday night. From now on the meeting will take up at nine o'clock instead of 8 o'clock to give farm members more time to do their evening chores.

After the meeting adjourned the members enjoyed playing and dancing. Lunch was served by the social committee.

The next meeting will be a business meeting April 28 at 9 p. M. All members are urged to be present.
