COLUMBIA NEWS

By Mrs. Bob Woodward

Columbia district school opened Tuesday with an enrollment of sixty-two pupils and an entirely new teaching staff. Miss Esther Masier came from Portland to take over the principalship and teach the upper grades; the intermediate grades are being taught by Miss Alexander who comes from Baker; and Mrs. H. M. Sommerer has the primary grades.

Mrs. Walter Robinson has returned home from Pendleton with her infant daughter Darlene Virginia born August 23 at St. Anthony's hospital.

Martin Hanfmann of the Navy Recruiting office at Pendleton and his brother Ernest Hanfmann, who is with the army at Vancouver were Sunday guests at the Jendzejewski home last week.

People of the community are quite displeased at the appearance of junk which has been dumped along the diagonal near the drain ditch about 1/2 mile northeast of the city limits, and a move will be made to stop it at once, and it is hoped with the assistance of city officials.

Mrs. J. H. Reid was hostess last Thursday afternoon to the ladies of the Farm Bureau Auxiliary and other friends when she entertained at her home in honor of Mrs. Emma Christley. Mrs. Christley, who is planning a trip east in the near future, was presented a gift of an overnight case and the best wishes of her many friends.

Betty Jean Reuber returned to her home in Stanfield Wednesday after spending several days here with her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Caldwell.

Miss Barbara Reid spent the week end at home from Kennewick.

Junior Pardon, who has spent several weeks visiting in Salem, returned home Tuesday. He was accompanied by his aunt, Miss Emma Lenz of Salem who will visit a few days here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Liebe made a business trip to Pendleton Tuesday. Miss Lois Cooley and Miss Charlene McDowell, both of Seattle, were houseguests this week of Miss Eva Wilcox. Miss Cooley lived here last year while employed by the Torteling Construction company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Graves of Portland visited during the week end at the home of their son, John Graves and family.

Miss Joyce McCulley was in Pendleton Sunday to attend the wedding of Miss Marjorie Myers, a former Echo girl, to Norman Welch of Pendleton. Miss Vera Smith of Hermiston was a bridesmaid at the wedding. Mrs. H. G. McCulley, Ruth and Otis accompanied Joyce to Pendleton and visited at the L. W. Owens home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fredrickson of Salem were here over the holiday week end to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. B. Wilcox. Sonny Fredrickson, who has spent the past month here, returned home with them.

Miss Rebecca Pierson was a Tuesday night guest at the home of Mrs. Dell Christley.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Woodward and children and Mrs. Sherman Wells returned Friday night from Tacoma and Seattle where they visited Harold (Manny) Woodward, who is stationed there with the coast artillery. An incident of probable interest to some Columbia neighbors occurred while parked on a busy Tacoma street. A lady passer-by stepped to the car and remarked that she had noticed the Hermiston name plate and could not resist speaking as she had once lived at Hermiston, teaching in the Columbia school. Her name—Ethel Graham Hazen, and while teaching here (1919-1921) she stayed with her folks who lived for a number of years on the old Waugaman place. Mrs. Hazen asked that we convey her greetings to any of her old friends who might still be here. She also gave news of her brother Bill Graham, reporting that he now has a large dairy cattle ranch on the Olympic Peninsula.

Pat Hatch was a dinner guest last Saturday evening at the Caldwell home.

Along the Diagonal: First signs of fall... chilly nights... a bit of rain... a few yellow leaves... wild ducks on a pond... and "Fetty" bringing the school bus around right on schedule Tuesday morning.

HERMISTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Grayden D. Lorce, Pastor

Our exposition of the book of Romans will cover chapter seven this Sunday. In this chapter we find that in each of us there is a Dr. Jekyll and a Mr. Hyde. This explains why good people can be so bad at times. The ordinance of baptism will be administered.

B.Y.P.U. meets at 7 o'clock and at 8 o'clock we shall have our usual "singspiration". The pastor will give a short message on "The Good Samaritan".

PENTECOSTAL TABERNACLE

Pastor S. E. Graves

We have with us Brother and Sister Coleman (the colored evangelists) preaching and singing every night. Enjoy their ministry and singing with us.

Remember the Sunday School contests. Next Sunday is communion Sunday. Why do we take communion? Services at the regular time.

MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

E. M. Ayers, Pastor

Sunday service at 8:00 p. m. Sermon, "No Room for Christ."

We extend a cordial invitation to teachers and all others to attend and take part in our services held at the home of Mrs. Jessie Hinefine. "Have faith in God".

OLD TIMER TELLS FIRST TIMER—

HOW TO USE

Buses Today

Old Timer: So this is your first bus trip. Well, travel has changed these days.

First Timer: In that case, what should I do?

Old Timer: Take these travel tips—See your bus agent in advance. Get tickets early. Start trips on week days instead of week-ends. Take only one suit-case, if possible.

First Timer: Thanks, Old Timer. That's easy.

Old Timer: Sure it is... and America's millions are finding it so.

AMBULANCE CORPS NOTES

The Oregon Women's Ambulance Corps of Hermiston wish to thank the following organizations for their help in rolling bandages: Queen Esther Chapter of the Eastern Star, the Methodist Ladies Aid, and the American Legion Auxiliary. They also wish to thank Julius Gimbel for his donation of splints for the corps' first aid class.

The Ambulance Corps is making plaques to put in their front yards. Anyone who has old sheets or facsimile to donate to the ambulance corps please give them to houses that have plaques in the front yard.

George Lewis of the Ordnance Depot is giving first aid to the ambulance corps on Monday nights.

Wednesday nights are regular drill nights under the supervision of Lt. Halverson of the U. O. D.

Identification bracelets for the corps have arrived. They are of sterling silver with the owner's name, address and blood type engraved on the silver plate.

The corps is open to new members. Anyone 18 years old or over who is interested in joining, please secure an application blank from Irene Van Patten at Brierley's Variety store.

Caspers Move to Nebraska

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Casper and four children, Ella Mae, Rex, Max and Dena, plan to leave this week to make their home at Sidney, Nebraska, where Mr. Casper has been transferred to work with the setting up of another ordnance depot similar to the one here. Two other daughters, Lois, employed in the First National Bank, and Jo with the Odegard Construction company, plan to remain here. The Casper family have resided in Hermiston for a number of years.

METHODIST CHURCH

Malcolm B. Ballinger, Minister

Sunday, September 13—10 A. M. Sunday School at Hermiston and Echo. 11 A. M., morning worship at Hermiston. Talks by Rebecca Pierson and Joyce Sater on "Christianity and the Cooperatives". Vocal duet

Who's In Uniform?

The Herald has undertaken to compile a list of all the men from Hermiston and vicinity, serving the nation's armed forces now and for the remainder of the war. This list will be valuable historically. It should be complete and correct.

If you have a son, husband, brother or a friend or acquaintance in the service please fill in the blank below and either mail or bring it to the Herald Office.
