LOCALS

G. C. Schroder was admitted to the Hermiston General hospital Tuesday. Avon Christmas gifts on sale and display at the Farmers Supply Co.

Earl Gould, who was admitted to the hospital December 13, was able to leave Tuesday.

Rev. M. Ballinger conducted the funeral in Baker Tuesday of the mother of Mrs. Morland who spent the summer here at the Methodist parsonage.

Mrs. J. R. Appelton, who left the Hermiston hospital December 13, returned for further treatment Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace Cochran and Kathleen left Wednesday for Olympia, Wash., where they will join Lt. Cochran who is stationed there.

Miss Marian Pierce returned Tuesday from a weeks stay in Portland. She left again Wednesday and will be employed in the Kaiser office in Vancouver.

The condition of Bill Shaar remains about the same although he feels somewhat stronger.

Mrs. M. G. Strain was released from the Hermiston hospital December 14.

Mrs. Everett Carter was able to leave the hospital December 11.

Gerald Neustel was admitted to the Hermiston General hospital December 15.

Mrs. Marvin Watson and Earl Watson were Pendleton visitors Tuesday.

Say it with music. Give your child a lasting Christmas present. For piano lessons see Miss Goida Mamma.

Bob Attebury and a group of high school boys took his truck into the Meacham mountains Tuesday to get a Christmas tree for the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cox accompanied by Mrs. L. M. White and Mrs. L. C. Cox motored to Pendleton and Walla Walla Tuesday on business.

Naomi Brownell returned last week after spending several weeks in Florida.

Charles Hodge, owner of the Hermiston Auto Co., left Monday for Portland to attend to business matters.

Mrs. A. M. Thrasher returned home Tuesday from a trip to Ravenna, Ohio. She came home considerably under the weather but her condition was much improved Thursday.

Major and Mrs. W. D. Alexander and son Billy left Thursday (today) for Boise, Idaho, where Mrs. Alexander and son will remain for the present. Major Alexander will be the resident engineer at the airforce construction job at Mountain Home.

Russell Piersol, who as a member of the U. S. navy is attending an electric school at Purdue university, this week was promoted to First Class Seaman and is now an Apprentice Petty Officer. He has received the insignia with an eagle and consequently is quite proud of the advancement. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Piersol, received a letter from Russell this week and he is enjoying the best of health and seems to be having a fine time.

— OPEN EVENINGS —

Bob Jackson, a student at the University of Oregon, returned home this week to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Jackson have received word from their son Walter, Jr., who is now stationed at Ames, Iowa, with the U. S. Navy. He is attending classes at the Iowa State college and has recently been advanced to Seaman Second Class.

Mrs. Tom Stewart has received word from her son Tom Jr. that he has been advanced to second class-machinist mate, in the U. S. navy, which makes him a petty officer. He is now stationed at Pearl Harbor and apparently is enjoying his work, although he does miss his friends here.

PFC. Walter R. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis, has been enrolled in a special course of instruction at the Signal Corps school at Camp Murphy. PFC. Lewis was selected for this specialized training on the basis of his aptitude.

Miss Thelma Swarner of Portland arrived Wednesday to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Swarner. She returned again Sunday morning. A son, Lawrence, of Corvallis is expected to visit at the Swarner home over the week end.

Edmund Briggs of Grangeville, Ida., came Sunday to visit until Wednesday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Anna Briggs. Ed formerly resided here and is well known among the younger set. He was formerly employed in the creamery here, being in the same business at Grangeville.

Mrs. Gertrude Heisey and son are spending several weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Liles.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kupers and daughter Nancy came Monday from Couer d'Alene, Idaho, to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cronk. Mrs. Kupers is the former Miss Beverly Allen, daughter of J. V. Allen of Echo.

A dinner was given last Sunday for Ted Hammer in honor of his eleventh birthday at the L. Hammer home. The Christmas motif was carried out with the table decorations and covers were placed for 20 guests: Rev. M. B. Ballinger, Jack Harmon, Dick Hammer, Junior Cherry, Donald Holman, Carole Hammer, Rita Blinston, Louise Hammer, Glenna Davis, Richard Snyder, Donny and "Ticky" Davis, Viola Hammer, Rosalie and Gloria Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hammer and the guest of honor, Ted Hammer.

Henry Sommerer, Eldon Saylor, Jim Jackson and Kenneth Benschel came Wednesday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents here. The boys are students at Oregon State College.

Mrs. R. W. Henderson and daughters Linda Rae and Janet came Tuesday to visit at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Georgia Henderson. She has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Welbes in Portland, and is en route to St. Paul, Minn., to join her husband, Bob Henderson, who is now associated with the Bureau of Plant Industry.

Reduction by 20 per cent in the manufacture of ice cream and frozen desserts will save 3,300,000 pounds of butter in December, or almost three-fourths of a pound apiece for every soldier in the U. S. Army.
