ECHO NEWS ITEMS

By Mrs. W. H. Coory

Harle Rogers, son of Mrs. Grace Rogers of the Meadows, spent a three day furlough at his mother's home. He is a technical sergeant in the army stationed at Ft. Greeley, Colo.

Echo Masonic lodge will have work in the Master Mason degree at a meeting to be held December 22.

Mayor C. H. Esselstyn is recovering from an operation for varicose veins performed last Thursday at Pendleton. He is able to be at the store although still slightly lame as a result of the operation.

Echo school will have a shorter vacation than usual for the holiday season. School will close December 23 after a Christmas program at the city hall and will reopen Monday, December 28. A one day vacation will be allowed on New Years day. Ordinarily two weeks have been allowed for the midwinter vacation.

Charles Cunha, who has been visiting here for the past week, left Monday night for San Francisco where he will spend a few days with his wife before returning to his station in South America. He is a sergeant in the air corps.

Bill Erskine of Ketchikan, Alaska, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Coleman, left Sunday to return to Alaska where he will enter the coast guard. He came here by plane from Seattle and has been visiting at the Colemans for several days.

O. F. Bartholomew returned Friday from Emmett, Idaho, bringing a government auto with him and went on to Corvallis to report for duty in the bureau of plant industry. His wife and daughter are staying at the C. H. Bartholomew home on Butter Creek until O. F. Bartholomew can return and take them to Corvallis where they will spend the winter.

The Echo Cougars took their first scheduled basketball game of the season at Irrigon 37 to 18. Boardman is scheduled at Echo Friday and this should be a fast game as the teams are rated about even. In the Irrigon contest the score was 22 to 5 at the half and Echo played all of its men in the last half. W. Brommell was high scorer with 12. Echo's string includes W. Brommell, Dallman, Reese and J. Correa, forwards; Luciani and Penney, centers; Bill Correa, Robertson, Esselstyn and Meechan, guards.

C. B. Greene, driver of the west side school bus, has been ill the past week and his son Willie, came from Pendleton to operate the bus while his father was confined to his home. Mr. Greene resumed work Monday morning.

PINE CITY NEWS

By Mrs. Bernice Wattenburger

Mrs. C. H. Bartholomew is staying in Pendleton a few days with her grandson, Jerry Myers, who has had a major operation. Jerry is hoping to get to come home for Christmas.

Jasper Myers and Burr Wattenburger had to report in Heppner Monday at ten o'clock at the court house to serve on the jury.

Mr. and Mrs. James Daley and son Charley spent Monday in Pendleton on business.

E. B. Wattenburger and children spent Saturday in Pendleton on business. The children called on Jerry Myers while in the city.

Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger was hostess to a card party Saturday at the Russell Moore home. Three tables were in play. High score went to Fay Finch and Clayton Ayers, and low to Patty Finch and D. Adams. Lunch was served at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Healy got a letter this week from their son Jack in the navy that he is well but would like to be home for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayers and daughter of Hermiston spent Sunday evening at the Clayton Ayers home.

Mrs. Anna O. Thompson spent the week end in Heppner on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Morehead and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers and daughter spent Saturday afternoon in Heppner.

Malcolm O'Brien left Friday evening for Portland. He has joined the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger spent Saturday in Pasco on business. They visited their son Earl and family while in the city.

The grade pupils are giving their Christmas program Wednesday evening, December 23, at 8:00 o'clock. Everyone is invited.
