POINT RATIONING TO BEGIN WHEN BOOK 2 IS GIVEN

Basic facts on point rationing were outlined today by the Office of Price Administration.

1. Point rationing will be introduced to Americans early in 1943 when war rationing book two is distributed.

2. The purpose of point rationing is to guarantee everyone a fair share of scarce but essential goods while at the same time giving everyone a variety of items to choose from.

3. There are three chief differences between point rationing and the coupon rationing which is now in effect for sugar and coffee.

4. The first important difference is this: Under straight coupon rationing, one single coupon entitles the consumer to buy a specific amount of a single commodity, such as, one sugar coupon entitles you to buy three pounds of sugar. But in point rationing, one set of coupons covers a whole group of commodities. For instance, your week's meat ration coupons would enable you to choose your ration freely between beef, pork, lamb or mutton.

5. The second important difference is this: The coupons in point rationing are of different denominations. Those to be spent in one week, for example, will include a one-point coupon, a two-point coupon, a five-point coupon and an eight-point coupon.

6. The third important difference is this: The various rationed items within one group will have different point values. For example, tenderloin steak, being relatively scarcer, might have a high point value and require a larger number of coupons, while hamburger, being available in greater quantities, would have a lower point value. Thus, in exchange for a ration coupon worth eight points, the housewife might be able to obtain one pound of tenderloin steak or four pounds of hamburger. (Point values have not been set yet. Values used here are for illustration only.)

7. The government will set the point value of each item within the group of rationed products and issue an official list. Point values will be based on available supplies and will vary as supplies of particular items increase or decrease.

8. War ration book two will have four pages of blue stamps and four pages of red stamps. The blue stamps will be used for the first group of goods to be rationed by points. The red stamps will be used for the second group of point-rationed goods.

9. The number on each stamp tells how many points the stamp is worth. The letter on each stamp tells what period it is good in. The government will announce these periods in advance.

10. Everybody who was eligible for war ration book one (the sugar and coffee book) is eligible for the war ration book two. If you do not have book one, apply to your local war price and rationing board on or before December 15.

GIVE YOUTH MORE ADULT WORK, ADVISES LEADER

Farm youth mobilized through the 4-H clubs of America constitute one of the major resources now available to help win the war on the farm front, believes Reuben Brigham, assistant director of the Federal Cooperative Extension service in Washington, D. C. He addressed the annual district conference of agricultural and home economics extension workers at Corvallis.

Brigham, who has been active in many branches of Extension work almost since the origin of that service, is a firm believer in giving youth more responsibility in a country's crisis such as this. While he says he realizes that farm families, as well as every other part of American life, are facing a serious obstacle race, the only way to live up to the example being set by friends and relatives on the fighting front is to overcome the obstacles on the farm front.

The entire Extension service is facing the greatest opportunity and responsibility in its history, Brigham believes. He said that, while Extension has been loaded down with multiple new tasks in connection with war work, it still must perform the old fundamental services of helping people grow crops. There never was a time, he said, when full production and efficient production were more important.

Referring specifically to 4-H club work, Brigham holds that a doubling of 4-H club membership this next year is entirely possible and that it should be accomplished even if old-time methods and procedures have to be done away with. Any way to mobilize these young people and give them more adult work to do on the farms and in the homes will prove one of the greatest means of bringing victory, he said.

Give Him
The Greater Gift ++

© A drum, a little red wagon, a picture book . . . these are gifts that bring joy to a boy's heart. But you can give him a far greater gift. You can give him the right to live as a free American . . . the advantages of liberal schooling . . . the freedom to follow his religious beliefs . . . the privilege of choosing his life-work . . . yes, even the unquestioned right to gain a world of knowledge and pleasure through travel.

All this you can give him by doing whatever you can —no matter how little—to win this war so that he may live to appreciate fully the true meaning of Christmas . . . peace on earth and good-will toward men.

Today, in the Union Pacific family, thousands of fathers are working tirelessly to justify the steadfast faith of their children. Theirs is the task of assuring the safe transportation of trainloads of war materials and troops. It is a tremendous job but they are doing it gladly. They know, as do we all, that only through hard work and sacrifice can we give our little ones the greatest gift of all . . . peace and freedom.

We're fighting this war in the hoglot!

• There's fighting energy in a slab of ham or a side of bacon—that's why our Government wants us to produce all the pork we can.

There's economy of pork production in Dr. Hess HOG SPECIAL, according to the Research Farm figures. The HOG SPECIAL hogs are ready for market sooner and on as much as a third less supplement and a tenth less grain.

A lot of hogmen are adding the tonics and minerals of HOG SPECIAL to their ration today. We surely believe it will pay you to add it to your ration. See us about HOG SPECIAL soon.

We will close 5:00 p. m. until further notice.
