Wagon Wheels of 1843.

One hundred years ago in 1843 the wagon wheels which were to make the beginnings of a state government in Oregon rolled through here with their load of 1000 pioneers. Oregon had plans to hold a centennial celebration but because of the war these plans have been abandoned. The history of this migration, however, will be told in magazines and

ECHO NEWS ITEMS

By Mrs. W. H. Cray

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Esselstyn were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cooper Wednesday, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Cooper.

Mike Haughton, who is employed at the Horton sheep camp, broke his knee recently and was taken to the Pendleton hospital where he will be confined for several weeks.

Mrs. Ben Gaskill is now employed at the Umatilla ordnance depot.

A. C. Ebert took over the duties of mayor of Echo Wednesday and made his appointments of city officers but confirmation of the appointments was deferred until January 20 as there was not a quorum of the council present. E. J. Nieland was appointed marshal to succeed John Oliver, who has served in that position since the resignation of Ben Gaskill last summer. Oliver will be kept on the payroll until the end of January to assist Mr. Nieland in becoming familiar with his duties. W. H. Cray was reappointed city recorder.

C. H. (Brick) Esselstyn, the retiring mayor, has served in that position since 1932, and was a member of the council from 1926 to 1932. He was not a candidate for reelection in November.

The organization meeting of the council was adjourned until January 20 because Mayor Ebert, who is employed at the ordnance depot, will be on the swing shift until that date and cannot attend an evening meeting in the meantime.

Mrs. W. W. Esselstyn was taken to the Pendleton hospital Tuesday evening in the Red Cross ambulance after suffering a slight stroke. She was reported the following day to be somewhat better.

Dan Phillips, who has been occupying the country club house at Echo as a residence, moved Tuesday to Hermiston.

Mrs. Raymond Attebury was operated upon Sunday at the Pendleton hospital for appendicitis. She is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Miss Violet Denny, who spent the holidays with relatives here, returned Sunday to Portland to resume her work as a teacher. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lena Mathers, who will visit relatives in Salem for several weeks.

Postmaster Spike reports sale of $2,831.25 in war bonds and $384.00 in war stamps during December. This is slightly above the average notwithstanding that many Echo residents who are employed at the Umatilla ordnance depot are required to make their bond purchases there.

Regular committees of the city council, appointed by Mayor Ebert Wednesday are: Judiciary—Liesegang, Oliver, Coe; fire department—Berry, Middleton, Liesegang; Streets, health and water—Middleton, Berry, Gray; Finance—Gray, Coe, Middleton; Hall and parks—Oliver, Gray, Berry; Cemetery—Coe, Oliver, Liesegang.

Mrs. Edmond R. Acton, who with Mr. Acton attended the wedding of their daughter, Miss Agnes A. Acton, in Portland, gives the following account of that event: At St. Michaels and All Angels Episcopal church, Miss Acton became the bride of Lieutenant Walter A. Gates, United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Gates of Ulrich, Mo., in an evening ceremony on December 12, with the Rev. Richard Flaze Ayres officiating. Mr. Acton gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. William E. Curran was her honor attendant, and the Misses Elaine and Darlene Acton, cousins of the bride, also attended her. Charles H. Cleveland acted as best man.
